ANTI-INFLATION BILL NEARING FINAL ACTION

Barkley Says Measure Will Be Ready for President by Tomorrow.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1 — A [illegible] ment of senate and [illegible] ences which would [illegible] administration's anti-in[illegible] tion to President Roosevelt for his signature within 24 [illegible] was forecast today by congressional leaders.

Senator Barkley of Kentucky, the Democratic leader, said he saw no reason why the bill should not be [illegible] before the President [illegible] at the latest. That would be one day beyond the deadline set by Mr. Roosevelt in his Sept. 7 you-do-it-or-I-will message on cost of living control.

Backed by an 82 to 0 vote in the senate administration lieutenants sought to obtain an agreement by house members to the main features of a compromise senate provision directing the President to stabilize prices, wages and salaries at Sept. 15 levels.

This would entail a reversal of the house vote to alter the basis of computing farm parity standards and acceptance of an administration - sponsored amendment inserted by the senate directing the President to raise price ceilings where they did not reflect to growers the increase in labor and other costs since Jan. 1, 1941.

Ends 8-Day Fight

Senate approval of this latter provision by an 86 to 4 vote yesterday ended an eight-day controversy between the administration and farm bloc members over the conditions under which price ceilings would be placed on farm products.

Senator Brown (D-Mich), floor manager for the measure, told reporters he and others of like views were satisfied with the compromise because they believed it reposed in the President discretionary authority which would have been denied to him if the farm bloc had prevailed.

On the other hand, Senators Thomas (D-Okla) claimed the compromise was a victory for the farm bloc members. There was little difference, he said, in the effect of the amendment finally adopted and his earlier proposal for an upward revision in parity standards to include the cost of farm labor as a factor. The senate accepted this but later threw it out.

"Everything depends on how the compromise provision is administered," Thomas declared. "It is essential that the spirit of the law be followed if the farmers are to [illegible] sufficient money to meet

PLEA OF INNOCENT MADE BY SCHULTZ

Richwood Man Arraigned Before U. S. Commissioner.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 1—Wilbur Earl Schultz, 61, Richwood tailor accused of firing three shots at a deputy U. S. marshal, pleaded innocent before U. S. Commissioner [illegible] Newlon today to a charge of failing to register under the selective service act.

[illegible] ordered a hearing for Schultz on Oct. 7 while federal authorities investigated his recent [illegible]

[illegible] Anderson, U. S. district attorney, reported that a search of Schultz' shop at Richwood disclosed letters advocating the impeachment of President Roosevelt and questioning the constitutionality of the selective service act.

[illegible] Main, the deputy marshal, said Schultz fired three shots at him yesterday at the tailor shop in Richwood. Main had gone there to serve Schultz with the [illegible] charging selective service [illegible]

Schultz also is accused of shooting with intent to kill a federal officer and may be arraigned before [illegible] later today.

The tailor was brought to city prison here after being overpowered by Main who then returned to Richwood with Anderson, Newlon and federal bureau of investigation agents to search Schultz' [illegible] and start an investigation of his activities.

[illegible] said Schultz had written [illegible] letters for editorial columns of central Ohio newspapers.

Old Rails Torn Up To Aid Scrap Drive

One of the most unusual salvaging operations in the Marion countywide scrap drive is pictured above. It shows workmen of the Marion-Reserve Power Co. digging interurban rails out of solid concrete at the terminal building on West Center street. Air hammers, acetylene torches, wheelbarrows and shovels were kept busy to send the rails into wartime production. Even the rails that formed the fence around the terminal building lawn were dismantled and put on the junk heap. In this job and similar ones the company has started at Stratford and Delaware, 25 tons of metal will be salvaged.

ALLIES PRESS JAPANESE BACK

Australian Pressure Continues To Force Enemy Retreat in New Guinea.

By The Associated Press

GEN. MacARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS, AUSTRALIA, Oct. 1—Australian troops were reported driving steadily up the southern slopes of New Guinea's Owen Stanley mountains today in pursuit of retreating Japanese forces after recapturing Nauro yesterday in swift 10-mile advance from Ioribaiwa ridge.

An allied communique announcing the advance said the Japanese were abandoning additional supplies and equipment as they fell back and an allied spokesman declared there was no doubt their withdrawal was hurried.

Strong formations of allied attack bombers, escorted by fighters, were reported harrying the enemy supply lines in the vicinity of Menari, about four miles north of Nauro, where it was believed the Japanese might attempt a stand along a ridge.

The latest allied advance apparently was negotiated with comparatively little opposition, for the communique said there had been no contact with the main body of the retreating forces.

An allied spokesman said the Japanese had made no attempt to fortify their positions at Nauro as they did at Ioribaiwa Ridge, high-water mark of the enemy advance. The ridge was recaptured Tuesday.

Nauro is about 42 miles airline northeast of Port Moresby, but is about 60 miles from that vital allied base by trail.

Allied heavy bombers continued to pound Buna, main Japanese coastal base 78 miles northeast of Nauro, and the intermediate depot of Kokoda.

(The navy department in Washington announced yesterday the loss of the 8,373-ton naval transport George F. Elliott and the small auxiliary transport Gregory off Guadalcanal island in the Solomons on Aug 8. The Elliott, formerly the Baltimore mail liner City of Los Angeles, was set afire when a Japanese torpedo plane crashed into her, the communique said. Most of those aboard both vessels were reported saved.)

PRESIDENT RETURNS FROM LONG TRIP

Visits War Plants and Army Posts on 8,754 Mile Tour.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1—The White House lifted a two-week censorship on the movements of President Roosevelt today and disclosed his return from an inspection tour of war factories throughout the country.

A formal statement said:

"The White House announces the return of the President to Washington after a most successful two weeks inspection tour of the country.

"The President left Washington Thursday evening, September 17, and returned shortly after noon today, completing a trip of 8,754 miles, during which he inspected army and navy bases, army, navy and marine training centers, supply depot and embarkation ports.

"The President traveled from Washington through Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, on west through North Dakota, Montana, and Idaho to Washington, down the length of the Pacific coast and returned through the southwest, Arizona, New Mexico,

Scrap Drive Yield In 4 Days Near 100 Tons

Marion Yards Take in 86 Tons in Three Days; County School Drive Gains Momentum.

The yield of Marion's countywide scrap metal drive soared toward the 100-ton mark this morning as the campaign went into its fourth day.

Contributing heavily to the rising total of tonnage were reports from Marion's three principal dealers that they had taken in more than 86 tons the first three days.

Salvage committee officials, receiving reports of dozens of farmers and some business places selling their scrap direct to dealers under the impetus of the nationwide campaign, said the yards' collections during the three-week effort will be considered a part of the yield.

Meanwhile, the county schools gained momentum in their task of combing thousands of farms for scrap. They will hit their peak later in the drive, but already substantial scrap piles are taking shape at the various buildings. The city public and parochial schools plans are rapidly being worked out and will be announced soon.

Here are some of the highlights in the county.

The Campbell one-room school, despite a small enrollment, pitched into the drive with the help of adults.

Agosta dismissed high school students this afternoon to canvass the district on a house-to-house personal contact basis, and already had 500 pounds gathered.

Green Camp, which has set out to top the 17-ton goal Pleasant school has set, reported its stock pile growing

Martel has half of its scrap "spotting" job finished and as part of its drive has pledged to get a carload of fence.

Claridon reported a score of farmers in its district have promised not only to give scrap but to bring it to the school without assistance.

Two big engines helped boost Caledonia school's pile to two tons.

* * *

Campbell School Community at Work

The Campbell school, a one-room building in Marion township, isn't letting its small enrollment, compared with most of the county centralized schools, put any damper on its part in the countywide scrap metal drive.

Tuesday night the whole community turned out at the school to get back of the campaign, and heard Arthur Smith, county farm agent, give a talk on the importance of sending farm scrap to the junkyards and on its way to the nation's war factories. Wednesday, B. C. Kreis and Harvey Lust, with the help of boys in the school, started calling at every home in the district for scrap. Students made scrap posters, talked up the campaign at home and among the neighbors, and warned some of the larger schools they would have to keep busy if they expected to outshine the Campbell student body on a per capita basis.

* * *

Agosta Pupils in Canvass Today

Agosta school shoved its scrap drive program into high gear today, dismissing high school classes this afternoon to send boys and girls out for a canvass of every home in the district.

The boys divided up the rural areas for their part in the drive and the girls undertook the canvass in the community.

A quarter of a ton "nest egg" has already been started at the school scrap pile and hundreds of other pounds have been pledged.

* * *

Girl, 3, Gives Bank in Scrap Drive

A coin bank turned in by a three-year-old girl is among the donations received by the Green Camp schools in the early stages of its scrap metal campaign. The junk heap already contains between two and three tons of scrap, with C. C. Smith, a garage owner, listed as one of the biggest donors.

School officials reported a cooperative public reception in the drive for metal and told of a widow who contributed to the campaign with the comment that she didn't have enough money to buy war bonds but "I saw a chance to help in this drive and I'm glad to do it."

The Green Camp school FFA chapter is helping direct the school's activities. Its officers are Charles Carr, president; Junior Brewer, secretary, Billy Davis, reporter, and Allen Dreyer, watchdog.

Scrap piles are beginning to grow in the Martel school district, Supt. Gail Ferris said following a joint meeting last night of the neighborhood leaders of the county farm agent's or-

Press Checks on Record To Mark Newspaper Week

President Calls Papers Steadying Influence Enabling "Our Ship To Ride the Storm."

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Oct. 1—The men who make a business of converting the world's events into ink so that all may read and know paused today and figuratively took stock of their record.

The occasion was the opening of National Newspaper week.

America's press had plenty to pat itself on the back about. But it was too busy helping to win a war.

Its commander in chief, Franklin D. Roosevelt, put it this way:

"Our free press has not only survived—it is an essential part of the steadying ballast which enables our ship to ride the storm.

"War imposes grave new responsibilities on all of us, but upon no public servant does the responsibility for truth and integrity rest more heavily than upon the press. Theirs is the duty of keeping the people fully and faithfully informed.

"The American people are vigilant of their precious heritage of a free press. They will permit neither its corruption nor its perversion for selfish ends. They will continue to regard it as their strong right hand in war as in peace. I believe that their confidence will be justified."

That confidence plus news ability has produced these actual results from the press thus far in the war, though the press [illegible] willing to call it the best yet [illegible]

PLANE GUNNER SGT. M'CLEARY KILLED AT SEA

Former Marion Resident; Parents Get Message at Home Here.

Sgt. Charles Graham McCleary, 34, a gunner on a bombing plane, has been killed at sea and his body has not been recovered, according to word received this morning by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. McCleary of 668 Darius street.

The war department telegram sent to Sergeant McCleary's sister, Mrs. Hazel Haskins of Richmond, Va., gave no details and no date. Mrs. Haskins telephoned her father immediately.

Mr. McCleary said today he had not seen his son in four years.

The last word that came from him was received six weeks ago and at that time he wrote his brother, Sheldon McCleary of Toledo that he was on patrol duty at Fresno, Calif., where he had been stationed for six months.

Here Two Months

Sergeant McCleary lived in Marion about two months, during which time he was employed at the Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co. store when it was located in the West Center street building now occupied by the Henney & Cooper drug store.

He left here in 1938 to work in Fredericksburg, Va., and enlisted in the national guard there in December of 1940. When the national guard was inducted into the regular army he asked to be assigned to the army air forces.

Upon completing a course at a special training school in Nevada he was promoted to sergeant and was a gunner on a bomber. He wrote happily of his assignment, his father said today, and apparently was well satisfied with army life.

Came From Forest

The family came to Marion about four years ago from Forest, O. The father is a real estate broker, with offices at 114 Court street.

Sergeant McCleary was born at Richmond, Va., on Feb. 22, 1908. He never married.

Surviving with the parents, sister and brother, are a grandfather, Joshua McCleary of Forest, an uncle, Lloyd McCleary of Mary street and two cousins, Paul McCleary of Uncapher avenue and Mrs. Helen Schwaderer of Oak Grove avenue.

2 Marion Industries To Get War Honor Awards in Week

Presentation at Steam Shovel Co. Plant Set for Monday, at Osgood Co. Plant Wednesday.

Two Marion industries will receive coveted army-navy and maritime awards for war production within the same week, it was revealed today when the Marion Steam Shovel Co. and the Osgood Co. announced preliminary plans for the presentation.

The Shovel Co. will receive the maritime 'M' pennant and victory fleet flag in a ceremony Monday at 1:30 p. m. at the rear of the plant, off Davids and Columbia streets.

The Osgood Co. will be awarded the army-navy 'E' flag Wednesday in a ceremony at 4:15 p. m. on the company grounds at the rear of the office building on Cheney avenue.

The public is invited to attend both ceremonies, which will bring prominent state and Washington officials to the city.

However, because of war department regulations governing industries engaged in war production, the public will view the ceremonies from outside the fence.

With presentation of the flags, each employe of the two industries will receive work merit pins.

Governor John W. Bricker will take part in the program at the Shovel Co., and J. E. Schmeltzer, technical assistant to Vice Chairman Admiral H. L. Vickery of the Maritime Commission, will make the awards.

Lt. Gov. Paul M. Herbert will deliver the address at the Osgood Co. program. Col. J. S. Seybold of Washington, D. C., chief of the procurement section of the supply division, office of the chief of engineers, will present the flag and Lt. Raymond W. Fischer, assistant inspector of naval aircraft at Curtiss-Wright Corp. in Columbus will present the award pins.

Both ceremonies will be brief, company officials announced, and will emphasize the part the employes have played in making it possible for the industries to receive the recognition.

35-MILE LIMIT NOW IN EFFECT

All 48 States Begin Enforcement, Some by Appeals to Patriotism.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1 — A wartime speed limit of 35 miles an hour for privately owned automobiles went into effect throughout the nation today but with enforcement methods varying from imposition of strict penalties in some states to appeals to patriotism in others.

The office of defense transportation which ordered the speed restriction to help conserve the nation's rubber stockpile, declared all 48 states were taking some steps for enforcement.

Additional efforts at rubber conservation came from the office of price administration which froze the sale of used tires and tubes pending completion of a new rationing program.

The ODT said the order for the national speed limit sets no penalty and that enforcement would rest largely on voluntary cooperation and on action of state and local authorities. All governors empowered to set speed limits already have fixed the 35 mile an hour figure, it added.

In some states where statutory speed limits exceed 35 miles an hour, authorities took various steps to encourage compliance. Ohio's highway patrol is "blacklisting" speeders by reporting them to the office of price administration officials who pass on applications for tires, tubes and new automobiles.

Governor Prentice Cooper of Tennessee directed highway patrolmen to report speeders to their county automobile and tire rationing boards. In New York, state police said a motorist convicted of driving between 35 and 40 miles an hour is liable to a $25 fine and five days in jail. In Michigan state police said they would substitute appeals to patriotism for arrest and prosecution.

The 35-mile an hour restriction exempts vehicles operated by the armed forces and those used in emergency for protection or preservation of life, health or public safety. The regulation is effective Oct. 15 for vehicles operated for hire as carriers in scheduled regular route service.

The used tire freeze order will be lifted, OPA said, when a

Monday Is Final Day To Register for Fall Election

Marion county board of elections officials today warned that the registration deadline is only a few days away. Monday will be the last day for persons needing to register or transfer registration to qualify themselves for ballots in the November election.

The election office above the Marion Federal Savings & Loan association was open today from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. Tomorrow and Saturday the office will be open until 8 o'clock and on Monday night until 9.

Only a dozen persons registered yesterday, and a dozen others transferred registrations.

STAR CARRIERS IN WAR STAMP SALE

Take Orders for Newspaper Boy Day Observance.

Marion Star carriers have been busy this week taking orders for war stamps to be delivered Saturday, National Newspaper Boy Day, when carriers throughout the country will attempt to set an all-time record in war stamp sales. The national goal has been set at $5,000,000 for the one day.

Orders taken up to tonight will be delivered Saturday.

The Marion carriers, since last January, have sold nearly $63,500 worth of stamps and bonds, according to Delmas Jenkins, circulation manager in charge of carrier sales.

Shields and silver and gold honor bars for 20 carriers who have sold 1,312 or more 10 cent war stamps have been received, Mr. Jenkins said. Most boys are eligible for the awards, but because of the rush of orders it will be a few days before they are received.

Those for whom awards were received this week are: Don Montague of 274 Commercial street, Loren Daniels of 966 North Main street, Joe Downs of 324 [illegible] street, Jack Davis of 335 Avondale avenue, Charles Lewis of 280 Edwards street, Jack Robbins of 286 [illegible] avenue, Bob Lambert of 687 Olney avenue, Richard Arthur of 584 Delaware avenue, Warren McFadden of 664 South Prospect street, Dean Carwile of 345 South Prospect street, R. ## MORE RUSSIAN TROOPS MOVED INTO BATTLE

Bring Reinforcements Across Volga; Nazi Line Pierced in North.

BULLETIN

By The Associated Press

LONDON, Oct. 1—A Reuters dispatch from Stockholm said today that Marshal Timoshenko's forces, battling to relieve Stalingrad, had broken through the German defensive position at some points along the Don northwest of Stalingrad.

* * *

MOSCOW, Oct. 1—Backed up by a stream of reinforcements from across the Volga and barrages from the roving guns of the Volga flotilla, Russian infantrymen under fresh, telephoned orders from Joseph Stalin to yield no more were reported crunching forward today northwest and southwest of Stalingrad.

Dispatches to Red Star from Stalin's namesake city frankly pictured it as in the "most decisive moment" of its trial as an increasing weight of axis troops and machines were thrown into the fight.

The counter-offensive strokes on the wings of the constricted front evidently were designed to wipe out or offset a new wedge driven into the northwestern flank by a fresh German tank division, as reported in the Kremlin's midnight communique.

Even with the arrival of that panzer division and two fresh infantry divisions, the Germans seemed unable to deal the decisive blow. At the same time Volga boatmen were keeping communications open across the river, bringing up Russian reserves under fierce German air attacks.

Heavy Plane Attacks

Red Star said that from 800 to 1,000 planes had been bombing Stalingrad each day, piling debris on debris.

Hundreds of civilians clinging to the tumbled walls of their homes and factories were reported to have died under the continued bombings. Schools, hospitals, the public library, the university and the palace of physical culture were said to have been destroyed.

Today's mid-day communique said that the enemy had been dislodged from one village at the southwestern outskirts of Stalingrad, and Red Star said that in that southern sector three settlements had been recaptured, with Rumanian troops thrown into panic in one place.

Another height was seized in the Russian relief offensive northwest of Stalingrad, where several axis divisions were reported massing in support of the drive already estimated to be employing as many as 500,000 German troops.

Captured railways helped the Germans in the transport of men and supplies, Red Star said. More than 1,000 planes were engaged in the effort to conquer Stalingrad, now in its 38th day of siege.

Secretary A. Chulanov of Stalingrad's Communist party committee reported in a dispatch to Moscow that Stalin's words had played a definite role in the stubborn defense.

Civilians Help Soldiers

The newspaper Pravda said thousands of civilians were aiding the Red army troops in street battles. Dozens of tanks, and other implements of war, were reported assembled in bomb-damaged factories and sent into the fray.

Volga river sailors and dock workers continued at their jobs, moving troops and supplies despite aerial raids.

Red Star stressed the gravity of the defense position by the statement that the "most decisive moment" had arrived, yet dispatches were heavy with details of Russian heroism. Hundreds of civilians have lost their lives.

One sergeant said the defenders would stand to fight and die if necessary but would never surrender.

August Traffic Deaths Hit New Record Low

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Oct. 1—Fewer lives were lost in traffic accidents in the United States last month than in any August on record, the National Safety council reported today.

Fatalities dropped 40 per cent below the same month a year ago, and the total of 2,310 was lower than in any August as far back as 1926, the earliest year for which national monthly totals are available.

The council said the reduction represented a saving of 1,550 lives. It reported the downward trend was general throughout the country, and that for the first time not a single state reported an increase for August.

Church Janitor's Life Sentence Is Upheld

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 1—The life sentence imposed on Albert B. Lukens, Akron church janitor, for the murder of Ruth Zwicker, organist, was upheld by the Ohio supreme court yesterday.

Lukens, convicted of strangling the girl and cremating her body in the furnace of the church where she was practicing at a piano on Easter Saturday of 1941, sought a reversal of his conviction on the grounds that Miss Zwicker died in a fall.

The tribunal also held that the Salvation Army is not an organization devoted exclusively to charity and is not entitled to tax exemption. The organization sought to avoid payment of inheritance taxes on a legacy from the estate of William N. Wild of Akron.

BROMFIELD CRITICAL OF FARMER DRAFT

Novelist Declares Farms Are Stripped of Labor.

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Oct. 1 — Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard is deluding the nation when he talks of greatly increased food production, says Author-Farmer Louis Bromfield.

"Farms have been so stripped of labor by the 'faulty, political and downright impossible' selective service system that the output of essential foodstuffs for civilians, armed forces and the United Nations will be reduced," the novelist declared at a [illegible] state conference of United States employment service representatives.

Describing the secretary of agriculture as "a small man behind a very big desk," he continued:

"In spite of Claude Wickard's glib statements, the actual results show only a slight increase in most things coming from the farm this year and only the same that was produced last year or [illegible]

"Unless drastic measures are taken there will be [illegible] next year under 1940 and 1941 in the amount of agricultural production."

Bromfield, who lives on a farm near Mansfield, O., asserted that Wickard had failed to say a lot of acreage planted this year would not be harvested because of a farm labor shortage.

He characterized Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, selective service director, as a "farm politician" who had tolerated this under a draft system which is "an old World war model." Only a central all-inclusive selective service system, with authority to draft farm and factory labor as well as soldiers would end manpower confusion, he added.

"The government of the Union of South Africa operates 12,935 route miles of railways, one of the largest individual systems in the world.

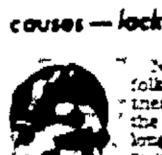
Why Be Troubled By Wartime Constipation?

Avoid one of the common causes—lack of "bulk"!



No wonder so many folks feel "all done in" these war days! It's the way we live—longer hours, harder work, irregular eating habits. And in this hurly-burly, meals are apt to be rushed, improperly balanced—and the important matter of "bulk" overlooked.

What a difference getting enough "bulk" might make! For lack of it is one of the common causes of constipation. In such cases, medicinal laxatives are only "makeshift" remedies, they don't correct the cause!

But eating KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN regularly and drinking plenty of water can prevent or overcome this trouble. For this delicious cereal supplies the necessary "bulk." Start eating ALL-BRAN today! ALL-BRAN is made by Kellogg's in Battle Creek.

TAX BILL PASSAGE URGED BY SENATOR

George Wants Quick Action To Help Check Inflation.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1—Calling for [illegible] and more speed in the [illegible] against inflation, Chairman George (D-Ga) of the senate finance committee today urged final passage of the new tax bill before the November elections.

The revised text, now in the hands of printers, will receive a final inspection by the committee tomorrow. George said it would be called up for action Monday, or Tuesday at the latest. He foresaw only two or three days of debate, and said he hoped to have it in the hands of a joint senate-house conference committee the week of Oct. 12.

The tax bill is the second volley of a three barrel broadside against the menace of what President Roosevelt has termed a "vicious spiral of inflation." The first was fired yesterday, when the senate passed the administration's bill aimed at stabilizing wages and prices.

George warned that congress and the country must prepare for yet another anti-inflationary move—cumpulsory savings at the rate of about $1,000,000,000 a month.

The finance chairman estimated roundly that the new tax bill would bring in an additional $8,000,000,000 over a full year's operation, raising the total of federal revenue to some $25,000,000,000.

He foresaw a certain amount of inflation as inevitable, even though compulsory savings are coupled with the heaviest tax load in the nation's history. This he said was likely because of the phenomenal rise in purchasing power occasioned by the wartime industrial spurt, and because of rapidliy dwindling stocks of consumer goods.

Those and other factors make it difficult to estimate the exact yield of the n. l taxes, George said.

CORRECTION

Roffiel Hines of near Caledonia, one of two drivers involved in an automobile accident Sunday near there, reported today that the collision occurred at the intersection of two county roads and not at a crossing of a county road and state highway as reported in Tuesday's issue of The Star. He said neither road was marked as a "stop" road. Mr. and Mrs. Case Boyer of near Caledonia were occupants of the other car.

It's a Long Way Back

THE PATTERN of Pacific war becomes plainer in announcement of an offensive campaign against the Japanese in New Guinea. The United States and Australia, having stalled the enemy's drive southward, are trying to recover lost ground. In New Guinea and in the Solomons they are seeking to drive the Japanese out of their forward positions.

This is the long way back that was made necessary by inability to stop the Japanese in the Philippines, the Malay peninsula and the Netherlands East Indies. This is the empire that must be regained before Japan can be robbed of the advantage it gained through what must be called the default of its opponents.

It may be argued that the Japanese will be hard pressed to defend what they hold, but it must be granted, also, that the United States and Australia will be forced to regain their losses at heavy cost. The bitter action in the Solomons is a sample of what may be expected at every point of combat. This is the tremendous price the United Nations are paying everywhere for failure to be prepared. The stitches in time that weren't taken have imposed one of the hardest comeback campaigns in history.

Cure for a Drooping Congress

AT THE AGE of 81, Sen. George W. Norris probably is making his last campaign for election to congress. He was elected to the house of representatives in 1902 and has been a congressman ever since.

His career has been distinguished for more than length, however. He has become a kind of symbol for legislative integrity, something the people of this country have not been taught to look for in the ordinary run of congressmen. That is the reason why announcement that Sen. Norris has decided to stay on in congress if his constituents want him is news of national importance. Congress needs its handful of Norrises now more than it ever has needed them before.

Legislators need to be reminded that there is a higher destiny in store than their recent predicament of one ear to the ground and the other to the receiver of a telephone transmitting orders from party headquarters. They need to be reminded that Sen. Norris stayed in Washington almost 40 years by voting his convictions, even when the result threatened to be unpleasant. They need to be reminded that the cure for a drooping congress is a stiffening of the legislative backbone; that the climax of trying to be all things to all persons is to be nothing to anyone.

Dedicated to the Jones Boy

BYRON PRICE, director of censorship, has suggested to newspapers that the good job they're doing about things the Axis wants to know might be done even better if their readers understood what is happening. That's a reasonable suggestion.

Motive for the voluntary censorship being practiced by newspapers is to give the Jones boy and his buddies who are fighting this war the best possible chance to get home safely. Technique of the censorship is to keep people with good intentions from letting things get into print that shouldn't be there. Chief problem is to acquaint editors and people who tell them things with what can and cannot be printed safely. Everybody's intentions are good, but sometimes the execution leaves a lot to be desired.

Perhaps the danger is imaginary, but that's one of those things no one can know until it's too late. In World war I it wasn't imaginary. British intelligence officials admitted they gleaned a vast deal of helpful information from German newspapers, carefully censored as they were. The United States doesn't want any German boasting after this war that he helped kill American boys because someone talked too much and some newspapers printed it.

It isn't a case of hushing deep, mysterious stuff, but a problem of keeping the other side from finding out where the Jones boy and his regiment are located and how many workmen are working so many hours making what in which factory. Obviously, thousands of Americans know and talk about these things all the time—too much of the time, as far as that's concerned. The press can't do anything about that. What it can do, what it intends to do, what it's doing and will keep on doing is to keep Axis agents from finding out what they want to know by merely buying a newspaper. Newspapers think too much of the Jones boys in this country not to work a little harder these days with a blue pencil to help protect them.

News Behind the News

Disagreement Over Fuel Oil Cut Raises Public Health Question.

By PAUL MALLON

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1 — War Production Chief Donald Nelson said a 25 per cent fuel oil cut this winter would be enough. So did Oil Coordinator Ickes, who certainly should know.

But Mr. Leon Henderson's OPA decided to deepen the cut to 33 1/3 per cent, thereby nettling a lot of oil authorities, and creating some suspicion that he may be gambling with public health.

This is one of those things that no one in official position wants to talk about. Every one outside, too, wants to cooperate to whatever extent is necessary.

But it must be related, in truth to the facts, that the oil people here again suspect Mr. Henderson is suffering from a chronic rationing [illegible].

If Ickes and Nelson thought 25 per cent was enough, there is no reason to suspect Mr. Henderson has superior judgment or additional facts. Indeed, his announcement provided none. It offered no justification, except the unbacked one that OPA did not believe 25 per cent would be enough.

No health authority in the government is going to come out and say that waves of influenza and pneumonia may be promoted by such a drastic cut, because no one wants to anticipate uncertain results.

Best Temperature

But the best possible medical authority says the ideal indoor temperature is 68 to 70 degrees. Henderson has fixed 65 degrees which the U. S. public health service here says is a proper temperature to maintain maximum efficiency in factories, where people are moving about.

The only official evidence on the subject is some testimony by Mayor LaGuardia, before the house banking committee last year, contending that reduction of temperatures would have a serious affect on health.

This much may be surely said:

The country, and particularly the womenfolk, will have to go into long underwear. This nation has been accustomed to a winter indoor temperature of around 70 to 72 degrees, and dressed accordingly.

European nations, particularly Britain and France, get along at lower temperatures, but they do so by using heavier clothing, and moving about more indoors.

Active children will no doubt suffer less than the aged and infirm. Office workers will have to adopt the practice of getting up and moving around frequently.

If these simple rules are adopted gladly by the people, and they have psychologically a spirit of cooperation and a sense of confidence in the results, the effects will certainly be less serious than otherwise.

As a matter of fact, if the usual Washington course is followed, Mr. Henderson's shivering forecast probably will be moderated in administration. They always talk big and harsh here at the start, but somehow their programs always work out to be less terrifying than promised.

For an apt example, automobiles bearing "A" cards in the east are cluttering up the roads daily on their four gallons a week. Bootleg gas is available everywhere—in New York at five cents a gallon addition, and in Washington at ten cents a gallon extra.

Gas Rationing

The first two steps taken by the government toward national gas rationing were diametrically opposed to the recommendations of the Baruch report, which inspired the confidence of the country.

First, Czar Jeffers was not a rubber man as recommended.

Second, his initial official step disregarded the Baruch recommendation for national rationing on the basis of need, in accordance with the program of the office of defense transportation.

President's Movements

The press is pledged to suppress publication of the President's movements in wartime. Mr. Roosevelt may go to Hyde Park, on a week-end cruise, meet Churchill on the high seas, or even make a trip around the country inspecting war plants and nothing may be publicized about it until official White House authorization is received.

The theory of this censorship is that the President is commander-in-chief of the army and navy and his movements, therefore, become military secrets, even if they are actually political, restful or otherwise purely non-military.

It must be reported that newsmen here have become impatient at the extent to which this cloak has been stretched recently. An airing is in the offing.

Moving U. S. Men Into Britain Calls for Stronger Civilian Representation There.

By WALTER LIPPMANN

IT SEEMS rather stupid not to have imagined it but until I had been there some time and had moved about the country I had not begun to realize what it means to put down a great American military establishment on British soil.

There are no wide open spaces in the Islands and therefore the Americans in their rapidly mounting numbers are being settled right in among the already crowded people of Great Britain. They have had a warm welcome. But we shall do well to understand at once that even the most dearly beloved relatives are something of a problem if they arrive with their babies and their dogs and their canary birds and settle down in the parlor for an indefinite stay.

The responsible American commanders and officials abroad are already aware of what this is going to mean. I for one came to feel that as our numbers grow and as the time of our stay stretches out and as the novelty of our being there wears off, we shall need a much stronger and more firmly organized civilian representation in Britain than we now have. For we have not merely an army in Britain: we have a fragment of our own society, and we have not one but many pieces of our own government, and that means that we must have on the spot a statesman-like political control over our complicated interests and functions.

Needs Important Man

There is, if I could judge the situation rightly, a void which needs to be filled by some one of the stature and calibre of Henry L. Stimson or Myron Taylor—that is to say by a man of affairs who stands level with men of cabinet rank in London, and in relation to Washington is not as all military men necessarily are, a subordinate of the commander in chief and limited by the rules of military discipline.

This is a role which the ambassador cannot fill adequately. Mr. Winant is a unique figure who plays a part in the relations between the two peoples which is as important as it is difficult to describe.

But no one would imagine that he is a great administrator and organizer. Nor could any one argue that his embassy, as it is now staffed is equipped for this task. Therefore, the burden of dealing with all manner of difficult political and social questions falls upon the generals or upon the civilian heads of our many agencies.

Now I submit that Gen. Eisenhower and his principal commanders have quite enough to do preparing our troops for battle without asking them to deal also with an ever-widening number of increasingly complex political and social questions. There is needed in London some one who has to be listened to in Washington.

There are some other things which seemed to me worth attending to. It is obvious that our troops are well cared for and that until they can go into action their greatest trouble is homesickness and boredom. I was very much struck wherever I went by their feeling of being cut off from the rest of the world.

Morale Problem

I saw something of the recreational facilities which are being provided, and what I saw seemed to me in the material sense very well done indeed. But somehow, to be frank about it, I do not come home feeling that the professionals who are concerned with "morale" have really grasped the problem of men who have left their homes, have crossed the seas, and are facing the most dangerous foe that men have ever faced.

They are trying it seemed to me, to furnish an escape. I wonder, if the men and women who are appointed to do this recreation work would not provide more genuine recreation for these fighting men if they were a little more like them—if they were less professionally agreeable and systematically sympathetic and had more of the high spirits and the high seriousness which are the sword and the shield of the warrior.

From News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO

It was Saturday, Oct. 1, 1932.

Will Rogers in his daily dispatch reported: "Coast papers are all excited because 'Japan has bought more ammunition in the last month than in years, gun cotton, nitrates and scrap iron.' Why worry about a little thing like that? Not satisfied by making turtles out of us in swimming, they hired our best diver after the Olympics and in the next games may beat us in that. But here is one thing they didn't reckon on. Our high diving is inherited from our politicians. They climb up the ladder on promises, just before election, they dive off after they are elected. No sir! Japan, you've gotta do a lot of diving to learn to catch us."

John F. Bricker, 72, died at his home in Green Camp.

The Harding High school football team defeated Delaware High school at Lincoln park 19-7. In the Harding line-up were Foltz, Firstenberger, Hinklin, Mautz, Rathell, McDaniel, Bray, Smith, Keller, Whitcum and Guthrie.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

It was Sunday, Oct. 1, 1922.

Judge and Mrs. Grant E. Mouser and Mr. and Mrs. Grant E. Mouser Jr. were visiting in Hillsboro.

Marion relatives received word of the arrival in Redlands, Calif., of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Dusenberry, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Dusenberry and children, and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dusenberry, former Marion residents. They had left here by motor Sept. 3 and stopped for a week's visit with relatives in Newton, Kan.

It was announced that Vernon M. Riegel, Ohio director of education who was a former Marion county superintendent of schools, had prepared a digest of the state law on school attendance for distribution to all Ohio school superintendents.

A drastic embargo on both carload and less than carload freight effective for 10 days beginning Monday was announced at the Marion freight house of the Pennsylvania railroad. Virtually every terminal on the Pennsylvania was crowded with freight or coal and the embargo was planned to give the railroad a chance to catch up.

RAMONA, Calif.—Puzzled motorists who found the ignition keys missing from their parked cars got a lesson in war when they finally located the keys at the sheriff's office.

Russia — Now and in 1918

In Better Position To Hold Against Germany This Time.

A CORDIAL reception for Wendell Willkie indicated kindly feeling for the United States on the part of official Russia, but even Mr. Willkie discovered that ordinary Russians are disturbed because the United States and Great Britain still have not come to grips with Germany on land.

Soviet resentment on this score would be heightened if Stalingrad fell. The possibilities of misunderstanding are so serious that Russia's record in World war I is being consulted for guidance. Despite their setbacks, the Russians are far less likely than they were in 1918 to make a separate peace with Germany.

In 1918 they had nothing left to hope for, not even a delayed second front. Their armies had been defeated. Russia had shot its bolt. Its equipment was gone. Soldiers were deserting by hundreds of thousands. The Communist regime that had taken over in November of 1917 had no more animus against Germany than against the Allies, finding all capitalist states tarred with the same stick.

Communist leaders wanted peace at any price to get their new system in operation. They expected post-war revolution in all industrial nations, no matter which side they had been fighting for in the war. The czarist regime's pledge of no separate peace meant nothing to the new regime.

IN November, 1917, Soviet Russia asked all the belligerents to consummate a truce in order to begin peace negotiations. The formula proposed for peace was, "No forcible annexations, no indemnities, open diplomacy, the right of self-determination for all nationalities."

The Allies responded by denouncing Russia for violating its pledge of no separate peace. On Nov. 28 Germany accepted the Russian offer, and a Russo-German armistice was concluded on Dec. 15. The actual peace parleys had already opened at Brest-Litovsk on Dec. 3.

On Christmas day, the Germans accepted the Russian formula on condition that the Allies accept it within 10 days. On Dec. 29 Trotsky, commissar for foreign affairs, sent the Allies an impassioned demand to enter the peace parley. His note said that the Germans, though renouncing new annexations, were insisting on recognizing old ones, and he asked that the Allies shame them by granting self-determination to Ireland, Egypt, India, Madagascar, Indo-China, etc. He went on:

"If the Allied governments in the blind stubbornness which characterizes decadent and perishing classes once more refuse to participate in the negotiations, then the working class will be confronted with the necessity of taking the power out of the hands of those who cannot or will not give the people peace."

TO this appeal the Allied governments made no reply. President Wilson made an indirect reply in his pronouncement of Fourteen Points of peace on Jan. 8, 1918. The points were prefaced by a sympathetic statement of the Russian dilemma.

Russia prolonged the Brest-Litovsk discussions in the hope of stirring up a revolution in Germany. Finally, on Feb. 10, Russia called the German terms unacceptable, and declared the war ended without any signing of peace. Germany at once began to march, unopposed, into Russian territory, threatening Petrograd; the Brest Litovsk negotiations were resumed; and Russia signed a separate, and onerous, peace with Germany on March 3.

Long before this the Allied and American representatives at Petrograd had boycotted the Communist government, refusing to have any dealings with it. The British government had officially ignored Litvinov, sent as Soviet representative to London, and France had given aid to the revolt in the Ukraine. Today, on the other hand, Churchill himself has been to consult Stalin, and Mr. Willkie has visited Moscow, presumably as a representative of President Roosevelt. Russia's pledge of no separate peace has been made by Stalin, himself, who knows that the first result of peace on German terms would be the dissolution of his dictatorship and the end of the Russian experiment with communism.

Spitalny's Band

By DAMON RUNYON

You Won't Believe This Bu Says Girls Are Much Less Bo Than Boys Used To Be.

PHIL SPITALNY is a chunky fellow a shock of wiry iron gray hair that is meaning to edge back from his forehea conducts a band composed of 35 female I picked him as a man who ought to all about trouble.

One female is generally supposed to b ficient trouble for any individual gent and two are popularly regarded as an load. Consequently, it seemed to me t guy handling 35 dolls all at once figur be the greatest encyclopedia on sorrow this source since old Solomon.

You can imagine my surprise when Sp told me that he had no trouble with his sical dames at all and when I demande explanation of the worried expression seems to possess his countenance at all t he said it was due to things outside the of music, including his studies of a card called gin rummy.

Spitalny was once noted in band circles Broadway as a high player at cards, did him no good financially, but since up gin rummy he has reduced his opera to a very small scale. He was born in in Russia, is about 42 years old, and of gentle disposition despite his long and con contact with a large number of ladies of va tempers. His brother, Leo Spitalny, is a musical director.

SPITALNY, who is now unmarried, he has been involved in matrimony, a big name on the air and in movie thea His band plays only for radio and the houses, and has never had a ballroom en ment, now a popular field of the male b His is one of the oldest and largest orga tions of the kind in the country. He is the man connected with it in any way, outsi the booking.

The band has been in existence nine and about 10 of the girls have been w from the start. The other originals re through marriage or to go into other occ tions. A few of the present members are ried but their husbands do not travel wit band, which is largely cooperative in its ness functioning. The members get scale sal at all times, the profits being held in a com fund for distribution later on, usually a Christmas.

Spitalny says he never bothers with the vate affairs of his musicians in any way seldom knows what is going on among but it seems they have their own inter administration, which is very interes Among other things a committee of five to be notified by a girl if she has a date a young gentleman. I presume the comm considers the nature of the date and the party thereto before it consents to an ou though Spitalny says he has never heard date being negatived, which he is incline attribute to the perspicuity of his ladies.

THEY RANGE from 18 to 28 years in and many of them are quite attract in fact, I think I should say most of There never has been a hint of notoriety tached to any of them, which is somet else in which Spitalny takes great pride. I he puts this down to his own judgment of c acter in picking the gals. They come from parts of the country. Some are collegians.

Spitalny had made bands before he too with the girls and he asserts that the are not nearly as wearing on a conduc disposition as the gents. I will have to let take Spitalny's word for that.

Kisses for Russia

By SPOON RIVER SAM
Wide World Features

Sure hope Russia is of a forgiving na When this is all over, she's liable to be pe at her allies over a misunderstanding about second front. We thought she meant a se front of statesmen.

So we sent her two expeditions. Churchill Hopkins was in the first one. Then we sent Wendell Willkie.

First thing Wendell done when he go Russia was take in the ballet dance. After show he handed the dancers some roses and kissed the star performer.

Now that made a big hit with the Russians. But ain't that traveling pretty far around the globe and going to a lot of trouble to kiss somebody? I'm thinking it would of been a better sign of our intentions if he could of done something practical. Seems like the least he could of done was to of kissed Joe Stalin.

If the defenders of Stalingrad ever got outside news and a chance to talk abou I imagine they say: "Well our comrades Yanks are coming. One is here already, roses and kisses."

Now Willkie's all right with me. There n was a defeated Republican that was better vaged. Remember when he went to England the pictures showed him drawing a beer the boys? It wasn't long till the country full of Allied help. So maybe the Russian pening will turn out as well. Anyway, I hop don't get in bad with Mrs. Willkie.

Farmers "Harvest" Winter Fuel

Wide World Features

INDIANAPOLIS—Spurred by war-born shortages, farmers are turning to woodlots the winter's fuel.

T. E. Shaw of Indianapolis, state fore urges farmers to "harvest" their woodlots fall instead of ordering binfuls of coal. A Department of Agriculture bulletin suggests "people in towns with forests nearby can their hands at woodcutting either individu or as a community project. . . . By organizing ting bees, social entertainment as well as re ation can be added to a useful task."

Wood fuel is superior to coal in some resp the USDA points out. It produces little soot smoke. A cord of wood leaves 60 pound ashes, compared with coal deposits of u 300 pounds per ton. Moreover, wood ashes value as a fertilizer. Wood also gives quick adaptable for use in gathering places suc churches, schools and community houses.

Indiana's state forester listed the trees of state in order of their heat value (or BT hickory, oak, elm, beech and sugar maple.

He cautioned farmers against cutting trees, however. "Leave 'em stand," he said. squirrels and coons will appreciate it, and won't be guilty of hurting wildlife. Cut the trees—those with spreading tops that steal light and rain from young trees."

A cord (4x4x8 feet) of the heavier hardw weighs about two tons and has about the heating value as a ton of good coal, or of a 200 gallons of fuel oil.

All in all, if the farmers take advantag their woodlots, they can eat their cake and it, too, Shaw concluded.

CAN MEN CALL YOU "SCRAP SLACKER"?

No Matter What You've Already Done About Your Scrap Metal . . . Read This Now!

TO win this war we've got to get more scrap, and you have the finest kind of scrap. You have it in the largest quantities. Your scrap takes the least work to prepare for the mills. Without your help, all the household scrap in America — important as it is — can not stave off disaster!

So here's what you must do. Wake up to the fact that it's not enough just to clean out broken and useless equipment. We've got to keep going! Get out the stuff that's lying around because someone thinks it may be used some day. Make this the absolute, unchallenged rule:

IF IT HASN'T BEEN USED FOR SIX MONTHS, AND YOU ARE CERTAIN IT WON'T BE USED FOR THE NEXT SIX — SELL IT . . . OR SCRAP IT!

This is work for the boss to do — no one else can give the final word. If it's machinery, get in touch with the manufacturer, to see if someone else can use it. If they can't — scrap it! If it's a pile of extra parts or fixtures, sell or scrap the ones you don't need. If it's heavy stuff that has to be dismantled — do it, even if it costs more than the scrap will bring.

Remember — you're not in this to make money . . . you're doing it to save our Country from defeat!

Get your employees in on this. Listen to their suggestions — let them know you're in it all the way. But don't forget the real job is up to you! For if this job isn't done, if our community and all the others in America don't come through, steel mills will shut down. Then if we lose the war — what will the things you hoard be worth?

Stop for a moment and think of that!

WHOSE BOY WILL DIE BECAUSE YOU FAILED?

Treasury Star Parade to Honor Newspaper Boys

Edwin C. Hill (left) and Howard W. Stodghill (right) rehearsing for nationwide broadcast set for eve of National Newspaper Boy day.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—On the eve of National Newspaper Boy Day, Oct. 3, the Treasury Star Parade will bring to radio audiences the story of how 300,000 newspaper boys have piled up $150,000,000 in sales of War Savings Bonds and Stamps.

Every radio station on Oct. 2 will play a specially prepared program featuring Edwin C. Hill, noted commentator, and Howard W. Stodghill, business manager of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin. Newspaper Boy voices, representing every race and every section, furnish the human background for the radio narrative.

The Treasury Star Parade will include an appeal for the public's cooperation with the nation's newspaper boys who this year have abandoned their annual day of fun and will devote National Newspaper Boy Day to an effort to sell at least $5,000,000 in War Bonds and Stamps to their customers. The International Circulation Managers' Association is sponsoring the one-day drive.

Starting in Philadelphia, the idea of newspaper boys making the sale of Defense Stamps a vital part of their business spread to every state. In the first week 103,000 10-cent Defense Stamps were sold to 35,000, and in the first seven weeks the number jumped to 1,000,000 Stamps to 50,000 homes. Then came Pearl Harbor and by Feb. 13, 1942 newspaper boys had peddled 108,-635,997 War Stamps. By Sept. 1 the figure rose to 500,000,000 10-cent Stamps.

Baneful Ragweed Seed May Aid U.S. in Winning War

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
Wide World Science Editor

LAFAYETTE, Ind. — War has found a use for ragweed, main source of hay fever in the United States.

Purdue university has announced the discovery in ragweed seed of an oil which is superior to some oils in which shortages have been felt. The oil closely resembles that from soy beans. This may mean food possibilities later on in the baneful weeds, but that angle has not been investigated at Purdue.

The discovery, and methods of putting it to immediate use on farms, was made at the purdue agricultural experiment station, by G. F. Roidel and M. H. Thornton, of the department of agricultural chemistry.

The Purdue experimenters have actually harvested 10 bushels per acre of ragweed seeds from weeds that grew in a stubble field after the wheat had been harvested. No new machinery is needed. The farmer's present combine harvests the ragweeds, and commercial extractors take out the oil.

Two crops can be obtained in fields that have produced only one, and the ragweed crop will require no work except harvesting. The Purdue discovery also promises a worth-while by-product out of something where heretofore has been just a nuisance, namely the ragweed seed that has to be separate from many present seed crops.

The immediate value of the ragweed is for fatty oils, in which there are shortages due both to increased war needs in industry and to submarine pinched sea lanes. The composition of the ragweed product indicates that it would have slightly better drying properties in paints than soy bean oil.

The seed contains about 19 per cent fat and 23 per cent protein. The proteins in the pollen are the cause of ragweed hay fever, and the ragweed oil harvests contain no promise of relief from sneezing.

Special Trains Banned in Order by Eastman

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1—Director Joseph B. Eastman of the office of defense transportation today ordered the "freezing" of all railway passenger schedules and ruled out the operation of special trains to football games, races and other sporting events.

The order, effective Oct. 4, restricts railroads to the passenger train scheduels existing on Sept. 26, forbids the running of any special passenger trains or the addition of new trains to existing schedules.

Atlantic Ship Sinkings Mount to 481 Today

By The Associated Press

The reported number of western Atlantic sinkings since Pearl Harbor stood at 481 today, according to an Associated Press tabulation, following navy announcement yesterday of the sinking of two more merchant ships in the Atlantic with the loss of at least 73 seamen. One of the sinkings was an allied cargo carrier, the other a Swedish vessel.

STORE FOUNDER DIES

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Oct. 1—Commodore Louis D. Beaumont, 85, prominent yachtsman and a founder of the chain of May company department stores, died early today at the New York hospital after two weeks' illness with a liver ailment.

Thin Line of Swedish Ships Keeps Food Supply Flowing to Greece

NEW YORK—(Wide World)—A thin line of neutral Swedish ships with their safety guaranteed by both the United Nations and the axis powers is moving fairly steadily across the Atlantic with food and medical supplies to help relieve the dire conditions of war torn Greece.

It is known that some, perhaps all, of the relief ships have gotten through safely to Piraeus.

The allied governments, with the participation of the Greek War Relief association in the United States and in cooperation with the International Red Cross, are continuing to send as large quantities of food and medicinal supplies as they can accumulate to this tiny classical kingdom.

Other friendly nations, too, are speeding aid. Last January a shipment of 8,600 tons of wheat moved from England to Greece just at a time when authoritative sources in Switzerland announced that 1,000,000 children in Greece were facing starvation. The International Red Cross aided by moving 9,000 children from Greece to Turkey and Switzerland where food supplies were available.

Sweden Joins Others

In March of this year, Sweden joined the United States, Turkey, Great Britain, Switzerland and other nations in lifting part of its export ban in order to rush additional supplies to Greece. In addition to the grain and medicinal supplies which the other aiding nations are sending, Sweden also has been sending some salt fish and sugar.

The Swedish relief ships are being used by most of the countries and, in order to take every measure to escape attacks by submarines, they widely publicize where, when and how these relief ships are traveling.

Last March the Greek War Relief association chartered the Swedish motorship, Sicilia, and it sailed from New York to Greece with all lights on and spotlights shining on the Swedish flag from sunset to dawn. Three weeks later the ship arrived safely in Piraeus with 2,150 tons of flour, 10 tons of medicine and a large quantity of concentrated vitamins. All of which were distributed to Greek civilians under the direction of the International Red Cross.

Besides helping the thousands of Greeks who were forced to take refuge in Turkey to escape starvation, the Turkish relief associations also have been sending considerable food supplies to the famished natives of the islands of Chios, Mytilene, Samos and Nicaria. Since last October the Greek War Relief association and its Turkish friends have been shipping 2,000 tons of food monthly into Greece and especially to the classical island of Mytilene where Sappho wrote her poems, and to Chios which is regarded as having been the dwelling place of Homer.

Bread Basic Food

The reason that wheat forms a major part of food supplies being sent is that bread is the basic diet of the Greeks, along with dried vegetables and oil. But even with the help of bread and other foodstuffs that the United Nations relief agencies have been able to get to the Greeks, the situation there continues to be extremely serious.

The Athens-Piraeus region with its 1,000,000 inhabitants, is not a very fertile region and its population consists largely of merchants, sailors and laborers. The suffering from lack of food in this section has been reported as extreme and the situation getting worse under the axis domination.

After May 7, 1941 the daily ration of bread per person was cut from 320 to 250 grams, and shortly after it was cut to 190 grams daily. As 190 grams are only 425 calories, this is considerably less than the minimum of 3,000 calories which a person needs daily to maintain good health.

The effect of this reduction of calories is seen in an authoritative report received in Ankara which said that among the Greek population there has been a weakening of the physical and mental forces caused by hunger. Also there has appeared a malady, caused by lack of nutrition which causes swelling of the lower limbs and then advances up the body and onto the face. The cure is olive oil and lemon juice, but olive oil, like all other fatty food or food containing albumen, is extremely scarce.

SUSPECT IN BUCYRUS SHOOTING IS HUNTED

Detroit Police Call Him Desperate Criminal.

By The Associated Press

DETROIT, Oct. 1—Detroit police launched a search yesterday for Irwin Kadens, 32-year-old army deserter, warning their officers that he is "one of the most desperate criminals at large today."

Detective Lieut. Marvin Lane of the holdup squad said Kadens was sought for questioning concerning several robberies, the abduction of a Detroit couple and rape of a young woman, and the shooting of a Chicago policeman.

He said he also was believed to have exchanged shots with a deputy sheriff at Bucyrus, O., Sept. 20, shortly after which a stolen Detroit policeman's uniform was found in an abandoned automobile.

A circular issued by the Detroit detective bureau contained this warning: "Kadens will stand for no questioning by police officers. He has been answering the first question with gun fire. Extreme caution must be taken when apprehending him."

The fugitive escaped from the guard house at Camp Grant, Ill., on July 14.

Bricker Urges Ohioans To Observe Limits

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 1—Gov. Bricker has urged all Ohio motorists to limit driving speeds to 35 miles an hour as a patriotic gesture and the state highway patrol is listing the names and addresses of persons exceeding that limit.

Col. Lynn Black, patrol superintendent, said the names were turned over to local rationing boards for reference if the drivers seek to apply for new tires or retreads.

While no formal steps have been taken, Black said he anticipated that the legislature convening in January probably would take some step to reduce Ohio's speed limit from 50 to 35 miles an hour during the war emergency if congress does not set-up nationwide restrictions before that.

Gov. Bricker has no authority to compel enforcement of the 35-mile limit without legislative authorization.

The dead: Mary Ray, seven months old, who perished in her crib; her father, Lowell, and his two sons, Scott, 4, and Anthony, 5.

Sarge's Dilemma

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK — The next time Sgt. Joseph Murphy of the RCAF plays cupid, he's going to hold tightly onto his pants. At a bar here, Murphy met a man who said his girl would marry him if she knew he was in the air force. The man persuaded Murphy to switch clothes with him. Murphy did. The man left to see his girl—and failed to return.

SURGICAL DRESSING WORK PROGRESSES

3,800 Made by Volunteer Workers in First Week.

Women volunteers made 3,800 surgical dressings this week, the first week after the opening of the center in the St. Mary community hall, Mrs. [illegible] T. Sawyer, chairman, said today.

Registrations of [illegible] and [illegible] are [illegible] at a gratifying rate, the [illegible] schedules are being worked out to fit in the large groups.

Saturday morning and afternoon will have the [illegible] registration and the chairman expresses the hope that high school girls and teachers from all the schools will avail themselves of the opportunity to volunteer their time on that day. Individuals and groups may register for the Saturday hours.

"I think the high school girls would like the work and they would be quick," the chairman said.

Forty-six women worked at the center yesterday afternoon and 18 made dressings last night.

"There's no reason why we can't handle our quota," Mrs. Sawyer said, "and I'm sure our second week's production figure will be much higher than the first week. The response has been fine."

Any women or young women who would like to contribute three hours or more a week to making dressings may register at the Marion County Red Cross office on the second floor of the Y. M. C. A. building. The center is open Monday through Saturday from 9 a. m. to 12 noon and 1:30 to 4:30 p. m., and on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights from 7:15 to 9:30.

WOMEN, CHILDREN ORDERED FROM DAKAR

French Governor's Plans for Evacuation Reported.

VICHY, Oct. 1 — An official source said today that Pierre Boisson, governor of Dakar, had decided to evacuate European women and children from the French West African port.

The announcement said that Boisson issued an order Sept. 29 for a census to be taken among women and children of civilian and military families which have two or more children living in the Dakar region.

(A similar announcement over the Vichy radio was heard in London Tuesday but another broadcast shortly after cancelled it without explanation.)

The announcement was explained as "precautionary" although French sources stressed it as an "opportunity to decongest the city of its over crowded European population."

Draft Youths or Fathe

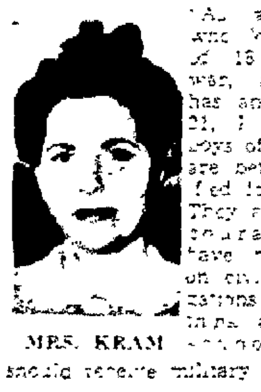
WIDE WORLD FEATURES

Here is the answer of four representative Americans to this important question—whether married men, with families, or eighteen-and-nineteen-year-old youths should be drafted first for military duty:

EUGENE E. BARNETT, General Secretary, National Council of the Y. M. C. A.: "It's a delicate question and involves [illegible] I would hesitate to break up a home in [illegible] case but breaking up the home would be temporary. On the other hand it might be of greater harm to spoil the educational possibilities of the 18 or 19-year-old. His entire life may be ruined as a result. I believe I would draft the married man first."

MRS. ABRAHAM KRAM, first gold star mother of World war II: "As a mother who lost a son of 19 in this war, and who has another son 21, I still feel boys of 18 to 20 are better qualified for service. They are full of courage and have not taken on civilian obligations yet. I think all high school boys should receive military training."



MRS. KRAM

MARVIN KOHN, Pre National Campus Pre composed of editors of 1 and college publications should be drafted before men—but with the cond upon induction, they also the right to vote. Only have been instructed in latest in physical and education will be able to ute toward victory. The group is willing and an and should be given the participate actively in ning. Bullets and ballots this war."

RALPH C. SUTER, Ind., chosen in newspape the real average Amer basis of U. S. Census, and the father of two small children: "Most youths graduate from high school when eighteen. It would be better to put them in service than wait until they are twenty. The two years between graduation and induction at twenty would be enough college work for or allow him to become established in life."

Marion Nurse Who Campaigned for Job To Go Oct. 3

Diminutive Miss Ann Lavitchka of 155 Superior street, who carried her campaign to get into the army nursing corps direct to the surgeon general of the Army of the United States in Washington, has received her orders to report for duty on Oct. 3 at Camp Campbell, Ky.

Wednesday night at Hotel Harding Draft Boards 2 and 3, which she has served, gave her a farewell dinner and presented her with a handsome watch especially designed for a nurse's work.

Drs. C. J. Altmaier, J. M. Miller and T. H. Sutherland were present, together with all members and the clerk of Board 2; Maye Adams, clerk of Board 3 (rural). A member of Board 3 could not be present for the dinner, but joined in the social hour later. Miss Lavitchka estimates she made more than 1,100 tests for the two boards.

Miss Lavitchka who is 58 inches tall, started her campaign to get into the army nursing corps last November but was rejected time and again because she was two inches under required height, five feet, and weighed less than the required 101 pounds. In a final desperate effort to get into service, she wrote the surgeon general who sent a waiver of the height requirement.

Miss Lavitchka returned Wednesday from a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lavitchka of Martins Ferry, O., and will be in Marion until she leaves for service. She has been employed as nurse in the office of Dr. Altmaier.

A name crept out of Julie's subconscious and she spoke it aloud almost before she realized it Dr LeMeure The Belgian surgeon remember" He'd know '

Dr. Tom shrugged. 'He's a big man. Doubt if he'd come this far. Besides, operation might not do any good."

"But it's a chance Dad"

"Sure—a long chance"

"I'll call him, then,' and turning she ran back to the office, spoke rapidly to the switchboard operator.

It took eternities for the call to go through Dr LeMeure was reached at his club He would be at Santa Felice General by eight o'clock in the morning Before that, it would be impossible

Julie had to be satisfied with that She raced back along the corridor to the room where two nurses were settling Pete for the night. Dr Tom followed her a moment later.

Vigil

"He's running a temperature If pneumonia sets in now I'm afraid he won't have much chance"

"It won't" Julie said grimly as if girding herself for a fight. 'I'll stay with him"

Julie kept vigil at Pete's bedside all through the long quiet hours before daylight. Promptly at eight, the slight, absolutely bald Dr. LeMeure arrived brusque, irritable, brushing aside all preliminaries Julie's heart sank as she took her place beside her father, watched the world-famous surgeon make swift examination of a dull-eyed Pete only just conscious of what was going on

"There is a chance," the great doctor said finally, turning to Dr Tom "If the patient has courage and the will to recover, it is just possible an operation would be a complete success It is also possible—" he shrugged, a typically Gallic gesture of futility, "—to fail."

Pete's head turned on the table "Take the chance doc" Then his eyes found Julie's 'Tell him, Sissy"

Pete was in the operating room nearly four hours Four hours of the most medieval torture for Julie.

When it was over, she stood by while they wheeled Pete out, an ashen-faced caricature of the real Pete.

"We have done all that we can" Dr LeMeure said curtly "The operation was a complete success If the patient recovers, he will walk again quite normally"

"If the patient recovers" The words echoed hollowly against Julie's growing fear For forty-eight hours he was kept under opiates Hours in which Julie went about her duties, present in mind but absent in heart. She slept and ate and cared for her patients and lived from one visit to the darkened room at the end of the hospital corridor, to another.

When at last Pete was conscious, it was Julie who found him so Returning from a late call, Julie stopped at the hospital. The special nurse was on duty, silently handed Julie the chart where Pete's ebbing vitality was marked only too plainly. Pulse slow. Blood pressure down below normal, dangerously.

Julie moved to the bedside, took Pete's hand in hers Leaning over him, she pressed her own warm cheek against his as if to share with him some of her own full-blooded strength

"Pete," she whispered "Pete darling, come back. Try to come back, please Pete"

Success

Then, as if in response to her almost inaudible plea, he stirred a little, slowly the eyes opened looked up into hers Moments of blankness before recognition Then, just a flicker before the lids dropped again.

Behind her, Julie heard the nurse slip away, close the door softly For a long time only the faint night sounds of the hospital came into the room Then, amazingly, Julie was sure he'd spoken her name.

She stood up, leaned closed

"Julie!" So faint a whisper she barely caught it

"Yes, Pete," quietly, calmly.

"Don't go"

'I shan't dear I'll be right here for as long as you want me Rest now"

"No Can't," and turned his head ever so slightly Then pain lanced across his face "Oh, God!"

He slipped away from her again back into unconsciousness Alarm took grappling hold of Julie If he let go of consciousness now, some part of her trained mind decided it might be fatal. This was pushing back—away from the struggle to live

"Pete!" she called softly, 'Pete!"

No response.

"Pete! Listen to me You must"

Slowly, he opened his eyes

"Pete — fight Understand! You're going to be well again You're cured You can walk again. But you must fight for it"

His eyes, glazed with pain, met hers steadily a moment "No use Rather be dead. Awful—pain—head"

And drew back toward unconsciousness again

Once more she pulled him back by the sound of her voice "Listen You must fight, Pete" And then, recklessly "Please [illegible] I love you I won't lose you now. Please, try for my sake."

At first he seemed not to hear Still he seemed to struggle for consciousness, so Julie took heart. Pleading, her voice reached out to him the only means by which she could penetrate the thick curtain of pain that shut him into a hideous world of his own

Dr Tom came in twice The special night nurse returned to her vigil Julie scarcely heard them. But when at daylight, her father took her arm, drew her gently away from the bedside and quietly

"You've done it Julie He's sleeping normally now He'll pull through"

She turned then, buried her face against her father's broad shoulder—wept quietly

Her corsage was of orchids. Mrs. Robert L. Cleveland, matron of honor and sister of the bride, was costumed in a green two-piece dress of wool jersey with tobacco brown accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of Franklin Roosevelt roses. Miss Janet Quigley, who lighted the candles, wore a brown velvet dress and brown accessories. Her corsage was of Franklin Roosevelt roses.

Mrs. Klingle chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of black crepe with which she wore black accessories. The bridegroom's mother was costumed in black Lie cloth and black accessories. Both wore corsages of white gardenias.

Lt. Quigley's best man was his brother, Kenneth, of Phillipsburg, Pa. Miss Klingle was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Klingle gave Mrs. Linscott perfume, Miss Quigley a vanity case and Mrs. Sinning a Fostoria vase. Lt. Quigley's gifts to his brother and ushers were bill folds and key chains.

INFLATION

the cost of producing the necessary food."

His words were echoed by the leaders of four national farm organizations who had been fighting for the inclusion of labor costs in the legislation.

Doubt Inflation Check

Despite assertions by Senators George (D-Ga) and Clark (D-Mo) that the bill would not stop inflation, the senate swept it to final passage in an eight-hour session yesterday.

The administration's command of the situation faltered only once, when leaders were forced to abandon an amendment by Senator Butler (R-Neb) to cut corn and wheat off the list of major crops on which government loans of 90 per cent of parity would be authorized.

The present loan is 85 per cent and the house previously had voted to raise it to 90. The senate committee followed this lead, but Butler made a last-minute attempt on the floor to place discretion in the hands of the President on the amount to be loaned, between 85 and 90 per cent, on corn and wheat.

This move was taken with the support of Brown, who said a 5 cents a bushel increase in the price of corn caused by an increased loan would add $650,000,000 yearly to the cost of living and would hinder the livestock feeding program.

Brown promised to attempt to work out some solution of this problem in a joint conference committee.

Besides the farm price provisions, several other major differences in the house and senate bills remained to be ironed out.

The senate measure directed the President to act by Nov. 1 to stabilize prices, wages and salaries at Sept. 15 levels, while the house voted for stabilization at Aug. 15 levels without any deadline on action by the Chief Executive.

Ceiling Dates Fixed

Both bills provided that no ceilings could be fixed on prices, wages or salaries below the highest point they had reached in the period from Jan. 1 to Sept. 15 this year.

The house incorporated the "little steel" wage formula in its measure, providing that no ceiling could be placed on wages which had not advanced 15 per cent over levels of Jan. 1, 1941. While this was both a floor and ceiling for such wages, the senate declined to write the formula into its bill.

The senate added two amendments not in the house bill. One of these would permit the President to veto any utility or common carrier rate increases over Sept. 15 levels. Another would authorize him, as he already has done, to ban the payment of double time for Sunday and holiday work, unless it was the seventh consecutive work day.

Liquor Places Warned on Sales to Minors

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 1—Chairman H. E. Hawley of the state liquor board declared today that tavern keepers "expecting to stay in business must redouble efforts to eliminate sales to minors."

Hawley's assertion followed presentation at a board hearing yesterday of a letter from Mayor W. J. Locke of Mansfield regarding John P. Hergatt, Mansfield night club operator cited for permitting sale of liquor to minors at the Ringside cafe.

The mayor's letter stated he had received no complaints about the Ringside, Board Member Earl Baird reported.

"The department of liquor control has had plenty of complaints about this place," Hawley told Hergatt.

The board took under advisement Hergatt's case and that of Nicholas Hergatt, proprietor of the Blue Goose, one mile east of Mansfield, also charged with sales to minors.

Rent Questions Answered

Following is one of a series of questions and answers on rent control regulations affecting the hotels and rooming houses [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Marion county rent [illegible] [illegible].

* * *

Q. Does the maximum rent regulation for hotels and rooming houses set up restrictions for removal of tenants?

A. Yes. The regulation states "So long as the tenant continues to pay the rent to which a landlord is entitled, no tenant of a room within a hotel or rooming house shall be removed from such room, by action to evict or to recover possession, by exclusion from possession or otherwise, nor shall any person attempt such removal or exclusion from possession, notwithstanding that such tenant has no lease or that his lease or other rental agreement has expired . . ." with certain exceptions. This restriction does not apply to a tenant in a hotel on a daily or weekly basis or to a tenant in a rooming house on a daily basis.

* * *

Q. What are some of these exceptions?

A. Refusal of the tenant to sign an extension of a lease at the same terms of the expiring lease. However, the new lease cannot be for longer than one year, nor can it call for a rent higher than the maximum rent. Refusal by the tenant to permit inspection of the room, unless this inspection is forbidden in the terms of his lease; violation by the tenant of a substantial obligation of his tenancy; committing or permitting a nuisance; using or permitting the room to be used for immoral or illegal purposes; and when the landlord wants to get the room back for the "immediate purpose of demolishing the room or of substantially altering or remodeling it" and this work can't go on with the tenant still occupying the room.

* * *

Q. What if the landlord just doesn't want to rent his room any more? Can he evict a tenant on this ground?

A. Yes. However, if a tenant has been evicted from a room for this reason, the landlord can't re-rent the room for a period of six months after he has removed the tenant without permission of the area rent director.

If you are a high school graduate and did good work in chemistry, algebra and geometry, or if you have had college chemistry but need a refresher course, you can qualify for a well-paid position in a war industry by taking a sixteen-week, day-time, tuition free course sponsored by the U. S. Office of Education and administered by Heidelberg College, Tiffin, Ohio.

The course, the third of its kind given by the College, consists of basic training in chemistry with supplementary work in physics and mathematics. Instruction will start October 19. The course qualifies for laboratory and plant technicians in ordnance plants and other war industries. The principal employer of graduates of the two previous courses is the Trojan Powder Company, operator of the U. S. Government's Plum Brook Ordnance Plant near Sandusky.

Applications should be made in person to Professor K. B. Barnes, head of Heidelberg College's Department of Chemistry, in Science Hall on the campus or at other times by appointment:

Friday, October 2, 7:00 to 9:00 p. m.; Saturday, October 3, 4:00 to 6:00 p. m.; Friday, October 9, 7:00 to 9:00 p. m.; Saturday, October 10, 4:00 to 6:00 p. m.

Candidates should bring transcript of high school record indicating rank in graduating class. No able bodied single men or married men without children should apply.

Knox County War Bond Sales Hit $300,000 in Day

By The Associated Press

MOUNT VERNON, O., Sept. 30 — Knox countians, if you hadn't noticed, tilted chins a trifle higher today. And small wonder!

They bought $300,000 in war bonds and stamps in a 12-hour span yesterday. It was Knox county victory bond day.

This county seat became a carnival town as go-getters set out to sell an original quota of $100,000 in U. S. A. shares. Shucks, in four hours this was history. And two hours later sales soared above $200,000. A sprightly Cocker Spaniel pup brought the top bid at a farm product auction—bonds totaling $1,300.

Five thousand persons participated in a gala parade.

JUDGE SENTENCES SPEEDER

DETROIT, Sept. 30—Sentencing a speeder for going 60 miles an hour, Traffic Judge George T. Murphy proposed yesterday that such violators be compelled to sell their tires to the government for resale to war workers. "Taking tires from people like you would be fully justified in this national emergency," Judge Murphy said.

G. O. P. PLEDGES WAR BACKING

[illegible] Platform Lauds
[illegible] of Bricker as [illegible] Governor.

[illegible]ociated Press

[illegible] Oct. 1—Ohio [illegible] into their fall [illegible] today promising [illegible]omplete coopera- [illegible] effort and com- [illegible] and efficient [illegible] of affairs in Ohio." [illegible] convention yester- [illegible] 350-word platform—the shortest ever approved in Ohio—commending Gov. Bricker and his administration for "wholehearted cooperation with the President in the prosecution of the war" and listing as essential to victory

Unselfish cooperation of every citizen to achieve maximum war production; elimination of waste; curtailment of non-defense spending; appointment of persons to direct the war effort "on the basis of ability rather than politics" and immediate restraints on inflation.

Praises Bricker

The platform also praised Bricker and Republicans in the general assembly for "reducing the operating cost of state government * * *, paying off inherited debts, increasing subsidies to local governments" and establishing a treasury surplus "against shrinking revenues."

Ohio Republicans holding state and national elective offices were indorsed.

Bricker, in his keynote speech, denied charges by the Democratic gubernatorial nominee, former Congressman John McSweeney of Wooster, that his administration had not given full cooperation to to the federal government in the war effort.

"Anyone who doubts or denies that Ohio's response has been loyal, patriotic and outstanding is either guilty of ignorance of the facts or prompted by partisan motives," Bricker asserted.

Even in wartime, the state is "determined to preserve local government and the voice and vote of th average citizen in the affairs of his community," the governor added.

Bricked took exception to Democratic Secretary of State John E. Sweeney's contention that a special session of the legislature was necessary to coordinate state and federal laws governing soldier voting.

Voting Now Possible

He asserted that Ohio election statutes provided easy methods for soldier voting and demanded that the secretary of state see that every soldier boy from Ohio that can be reached be given a chance to vote."

Sweeney ruled arbitrarily this week that the federal war ballot listing only the names of congressional candidates could not be used by Ohio and that men in the armed forces applying for absent voters' forms should be sent the state ballot carrying names of congressional, state and local candidates.

The governor mentioned the state treasury surplus of $20,000,000 and promised that no new taxes would be levied or present ones increased, adding

"If we had listened to the many and varied demands of the opposition that we spend our savings, Ohio would today face new taxes or restricted governmental service." He predicted that increases in real and personal property valuations would augment local revenues during the next two years.

Congressman Thomas A. Jenkins, Republican of Ironton, asserted that totalitarian-minded New Deal was seeking to "consolidate authority in the President, but was "allergic to criticism due largely to the unfortunate fact that the President his not surrounded himself with the able and most experienced men available."

Meets Lost Brother

By The Associated Press

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.—During a rainstorm, one of the children at J. H. Maples' home told her mother an elderly woman was standing on the porch.

Maples' married daughter opened the door and invited the woman—Mrs Rose Cotter, seeking shelter from the rain—into the home

After a bit the elder Maples appeared from an adjoining room and declared

"Why, Rose, you haven't changed since you were a kid"

And so Mrs Cotter met her brother after 58 years—even though during that time they lived only a few miles away Maples had left home when a boy and had not returned.

ganization, and the student council

In addition to the regular scrap collection the group pledged itself to bring in a railroad carload of old wire within the next few days.

The superintendent said he believed that more than half the scrap in the district already is "spotted" for collection. He said a great many residents of the community have volunteered to help the neighborhood leaders and school pupils in getting in all the scrap in the community.

* * *

Responses Received in Claridon Drive

Return of approximately 50 questionnaires reporting scrap metal available on farms in the district cheered Claridon students yesterday in their scrap metal campaign. Twenty other farmers reported they had scrap metal and would bring it to the school without any schoolboy help.

Girls of the school will follow up the questionnaire canvass, contacting homes that did not send in answers or that reported they had no scrap.

Meanwhile, 20 high school boys are getting ready to go to work beginning Monday on the job of assembling scrap on farms that have turned in requests for schoolboy help in getting the metal ready for truckers.

* * *

Caledonia Pile Now Two Tons

Approximately two tons of scrap metal has been brought to the Caledonia school since the beginning of the salvage drive this week. Most of this has been brought in from the village. The largest contribution was made by S. P. Robertson, operator of the grain elevator at Caledonia. Mr. Robertson gave two gasoline engines weighing approximately 500 pounds each.

* * *

Receipts from Last Drive Apportioned

* * *

Members of the Marion county salvage committee who directed the city scrap drive held three weeks ago met last night to apportion some of the $515 in the committee treasury as a result of the sale of scrap metal.

The group voted $150 to the Boy Scouts, asking that it go for improvements at Camp Owens, and gave $50 to the Girl Scout organization.

It also voted to buy flashlight blackout lenses for Marion's 600 air raid wardens.

The remainder of the fund will be held for use in other local projects.

The group voted that all scrap placed in the salvage committee bin on the city parking lot during the school campaign be given to the Harding High school vocational shop.

Hitler Will Find Revenge Bombing of Britain Not Easy

Situation Has Changed Since He Broke Off Mass Attacks To Concentrate on Russia.

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Wide World War Analyst

LONDON, Oct. 1 — Herr Hitler's boastful promise to his people yesterday that he will retaliate against Britain for the bombing raids on Germany finds John Bull quite unmoved and stoically reconciled to renewal of the Nazi war from the air.

There can be no question of der fuehrer's intention to resume his aerial hymn of hate, but there is considerable doubt how far he will be able to carry out his plans. He no longer is the mighty man he was before he tangled with the unconquerable Bolshevists, and his ability to conduct further wholesale bombings of Britain is contingent on several important things.

One of them is whether the allies open up that second front about which he admits he is worried.

His declaration yesterday that he is ready to meet such an offensive is at least partly true, for his defensive preparations in western Europe have been obvious. Should such an allied operation eventuate, Adolf might find himself far too busy meeting it to permit of bombing Britain.

Busy In Russia

At the moment, of course, he is fully preoccupied with his thus far unsuccessful effort to annihilate the Russian army of the south.

For months German efforts against Britain have been confined largely to nuisance raids. But John Bull is smart to anticipate that such a comparatively quiet condition won't continue indefinitely.

At present, virtually all Hitler's air power, apart from essential home defense, is engaged in his now-or-never assault on Stalingrad and the Caucasus. One wouldn't expect him to withdraw any of this strength until he achieves all he can before winter calls a halt.

However, once the Caucasus show slows down, whither then?

It strikes me that he will be faced with numerous difficult problems now developing.

His airfleet is no longer the great weapon with which he started the war. He is short of warplanes, pilots, oil and gasoline. His first-line planes have been and are undergoing terrific wear and tear at Stalingrad. Before he can undertake any wholesale bombing of Britain, or any other extended engagement, he must go in for a thorough overhauling, and that will take time.

Allied Strength Grows

Also the Anglo-American air strength already in the British Isles and steadily growing. The [illegible] in the air [illegible] and are [illegible] supremacy. [illegible] of Britain, [illegible] been [illegible] strengthened.

[illegible] they swing over [illegible] reports are [illegible] strategy [illegible] great improvements at [illegible] it defenses. [illegible]

Maybe Hitler will have other projects on hand at that time. He might decide to throw his strength into his now stationary offensive against Egypt. He might try to reach the Middle East by driving his air force against Syria, opposite Turkey.

Now as to the second front: It is interesting to discover that the British public is experiencing a lively hunch that the allied high command is cooking up something.

The [illegible] this feeling among military observers, too, on both sides of the Atlantic recently. There's nothing you can put your finger on but its very persistence encourages belief that it isn't without substance. And now along comes der fuehrer to say he's seen the ghost.

And in view of the fact that both Britain and America have stated they are preparing an offensive and will get into action as soon as feasible, it's not illogical to think that something might pop somewhere any time.

"Second front" and "western Europe" have become synonymous in the minds of many of the public, but signs are that it will be safer not to try to pin expectations to that area or to any other specific zone at this time. There are several useful places where the allies could strike.

Where the allies may strike remains to be seen, but one thing is clear—if and when the allied command decides to open a new front it will have the eager support of the people. That support is calculated to provide inspiration for action when it is wholly feasible. Maybe that's what Wendell Willkie had in mind when he said some of our military [illegible] prodding."

Air Raid Warden "Get Acquainted" Event on Tonight

From 7 30 to 8 tonight has been the time set for Marion's "get acquainted with your air raid warden" event. Wardens of all areas will have police whistles and will use them on their rounds, Earl Ruhlman, chief warden, said today. They will wear official arm bands designating their office, he said, and suggested that drivers of motor cars salute them with a blast of the auto horn, and that residents keep a sharp lookout for the wardens to pass, waving or calling to them, making particularly sure of their identity. "It is important to know your warden because sometime you may want him in a hurry," Mr. Ruhlman warned.

The get acquainted round is part of the preparation for the city's first blackout test which will come within a few weeks. Each warden has in a window of his home a 10x12-inch poster with the words "Air Raid Warden" printed on it in red and blue, the same colors that are used in the arm bands, Mr. Ruhlman said.

SEPTEMBER ARMS PRODUCTION SPOTTY

Nelson Says Month's Output Not Up to Goal.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1— Chairman Donald M. Nelson of the war production board reported today that munitions output in September still was "spotty," indicating that the month's output of planes, tanks, ships and ordnance would not be closer to the goal than the August production record which he has described as not a record "we can brag about."

"It was spotty again last month," Nelson said in response to a press conference question whether September had brought improvement in the manufacture of war implements.

Beginning with the first quarter of 1943 Nelson added materials for war production will be divided among war plants on an "allocation and schedule" basis, instead of the present production requirements plan system which in essence is a refinement of the priority system.

SERIES OF BICYCLE THEFTS GROWS TO 4

Two More Taken Last Night and Today.

Two more bicycles were reported stolen yesterday and today, bringing to four the number of bike thefts reported to city police since Tuesday.

Dick Turner of 369 Fahey street told police today that his bike was taken from a rack at the rear of Central Junior High school some time yesterday.

Russell Keeran of 525 North Main street owned a bike which was stolen from in front of the Marion Recreation center on South Prospect street some time after 6 15 last night. It was the second bicycle stolen from in front of the business place in the last two days.

HIGH SCHOOL TO HAVE SERVICE FLAG PROGRAM

Presentation Scheduled for Assembly Friday.

Presentation of a service flag, a gift of the Harding High chapter of the Junior Red Cross, will be made at the Friday morning assembly, at Harding High school, it was announced today. The flag will be presented by Peggy Hale, representative of the Junior Red Cross, and will be accepted by Tom Hurst, president of the student council. The presentation exercises will be conducted at 8 45 a. m. in the west hall and repeated at the second assembly at 9 45 a. m. in the east hall.

The flag has four gold stars honoring Carlos Frazier of the class of 1940, Carl Danner Jr., class of 1935, Ralph Davis, class of 1936 and Don Maskill, class of 1934, who lost their lives in the service, and a star for every class from which men in the armed forces are enrolled.

The exercises will be open to former students of Harding.

Plans are being made to have an honor roll listing the names of Harding High school men who have joined the forces.

Girl Injured When Struck by Automobile

Dora Yohn, 11, of 392 Silver street suffered a fractured collar bone and minor injuries when struck Tuesday on Campbell street by a car driven by William Collins, 16, of 392 Silver street, police records show.

Cars driven by James D. Kinnear, 42, of Magnetic Springs and Clarence Wetzel, 16, of near Marion figured in a minor collision on West Center street, near Prospect street at 11 30 p. m. last night.

Final Day Brings Driver License Rush

Approximately 1,200 drivers' licenses were issued at the Marion office yesterday, J. E. Messenger, deputy registrar, reported. Old licenses expired at midnight last night. The office was kept open from 8 15 a. m. until 10 30 p. m. in an especially heavy sale last night.

The number of licenses issued at the Marion office this year, approximately 11,000, exceeded expectations of the authorities.

The Associated Press reported that Highway Director Hal G. Sours estimated that the issuance of new licenses would approximate the 2,000,000 of last year. Arrival of war workers from other states should help make up the loss of licenses caused by the entry of [illegible] into the armed forces, he said.

Ruffing, on Brink of Immortality, Folds in 9th, But Yanks Win, 7 -

Rufus the Red Hurls 7 2-3 Innings of Hitless Ball As Yanks Capture World Series Opener.

By The Associated Press

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 1 — The picture of lion-hearted Red Ruffing, on the brink of world series immortality, suddenly going to pieces under a four-run assault by the ever-fighting Cardinals still was fresh in the minds of everyone who watched yesterday's thriller as the Yankees and the Cards tangled in the second game at Sportsman's park today.

It was a game that first one, that will be remembered a long time. Those who saw it probably will forget the final score in time—7-4 for the Yankees—but they will remember how the 38-year-old Ruffing, within one hit of a two-hit world series shutout had his dream shattered like a thunderclap from the blue.

Some though the ninth inning deserved to rank in dramatic quality with the storied seventh frame of the final series game in 1926, when old Pete Alexander struck out Tony Lazzeri, and with another wild inning in the '29 classic, when the Athletics scored 10 runs to overcome an eight-run Chicago Cubs' lead.

Is Seventh Victory

An important difference was, of course, that the rally failed to win yesterday's game for the Cards. Ruffing, too, received credit for his seventh world series victory, a record unmatched by any pitcher. But that blazing rally of the Red Birds might have an important bearing on the remainder of the series.

The youngsters really looked painfully weak while Ruffing mowed them down for the first seven and two-thirds innings. They were over-anxious and obviously nervous, a perfect set-up for crafty Rufus the Red.

Up to the ninth inning, Captain Terry Moore was the only Cardinal who even looked like he might get a safety off the former coal miner. Twice he had sent Yankee outfielders chasing far back to pull down his drives before he came up with two down in the eighth inning and pumped a clean single into right field, the first hit off Red.

In pitching seven and two-thirds innings of hitless ball, Ruffing, at least, smashed the previous world series record of seven and one-third frames, held jointly by Herb Pennock and Monte Pearson, who were, of course, pitching for the Yankees when they did it.

Expect To Lose Today

St. Louis players and fans were surprisingly light-hearted about losing the opener. The town has a lot of solid confidence in the scrapping club that overhauled Brooklyn and won the National league flag in a rousing finish. Roy Stockton of the Post-Dispatch said last night. "They won't feel natural until they've lost the first two games."

The fans thought Beazley, the youngster who won 21 games in this, his first year in the big time, had a good chance of handcuffing the Yankee batters today. They sneered at the suggestion that Johnny might be overcome by the occasion and issue a flock of passes, a fatal thing to do against the Yankees.

Wildness, coupled with some jittery support, was what proved the undoing of Mort Cooper, the Cards' ace pitcher, yesterday. He had a world of stuff, but walks kept him in almost constant hot water up to the time he was removed in favor of Harry Gumbert with two out and five runs across in the eighth inning.

In the last 13 innings he pitch-

HITLER TALK EDGED BY SERIES GAME

Washington Headlines Yank Victory Over Speech.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Oct 1—Ignoring Pancho Villa's astute precedent of 25 years ago, Adolf Hitler, clean-up man on the axis ball club, walked up to the American publicity plate and popped out yesterday.

Washington front pages showed that on the nation's news diamond, Der Fuehrer's Sportspalast speech played second fiddle to the horsehide battle out in St. Louis.

In the capital, where newspapers headlined the victory of the New York Yankees over the St. Louis Cardinals in the first world series game, Hitler's harangue hardly raised an eyebrow.

He was the headline writer's forgotten man, buried down with the smaller type.

Government workers kept at their jobs, but cocked one ear for the latest report on Yankee hurler Red Ruffing's seven-inning try for a no-hitter. Officials and employes clustered around radios, teletypes and telephones for play-by-play accounts of the baseball classic.

In senate and house cloakrooms, war, navy and state departments, the nation's leaders paused to ask how the Cards' spectacular ninth-inning rally fared.

But nobody asked about Hitler's speech.

Now, had Der Fuehrer followed Villa's example, he might have fared better. The Mexican insurrectionist was planning an attack on the town of Ojinaga in early October of 1917 when Norman Walker of the Associated Press appeared on the scene.

Publicity - conscious Pancho asked Walker for his professional advice, and the straight-faced scribe told him to wait until the world series was over if he wanted to make the U. S. front pages.

"Gracias, Amigo," said Pancho, and promptly postponed the attack.

When the series was over, he captured Ojinaga, and made the front pages.

OHIO HORSE SCORES WIN AT LEXINGTON

Volarion, Owned by L. E. Grier of Newark, Wins.

By The Associated Press

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 1—Adios, fleet two-year old colt owned by Tommy Thomas, of Cleveland, was favored today by railbirds in the Geers stake, carrying a $6,816.25 purse, the headline event on Lexington trots second day program.

The youngster, campaigned by Iowan Rupe Parker, was matched against eight other two year old pacers. E. P. Cray's King's Counsel and Sullivan and Mawhinney's Widow's Pride were expected to provide Adios' keenest competition.

Volarion, owned by L. E. Greer of Newark, O., and driven by J. F. Cartnal of Hanover, won the 46th Walnut Hall cup for trotters yesterday. Volarion finished third in the first heat, behind the favorite, Captain January, and Big Shot, took first place in the second and third events. The times were 2:03½, 2:03¾ and 2:03½. Ohio's Doc Parshall piloted Captain January.

Mt. Vernon Game Friday Looms as Breather for Presidents.

By LOREN W. TIBBALS
Marion Star Sports Editor

"Now that you have seen the Harding football team in action, what do you think of the Presidents' 1942 chances?"

The echo of this question from a hundred pairs of lips still rings in my ears. I have withheld my own opinion in most cases mainly because a team can not be judged on its performance in a single game.

By mid-season, or at least after Oct. 16, the real answer will have been given. It is on this date that Harding plays host to Ashland, considered by most observers as Harding's toughest assignment. From then on the coast will be clear.

Between then Harding meets Mt. Vernon, followed by Lima Central. From all appearances Mt. Vernon has little or no power this season. Most of the players who were on last year's squad which battled Marion to a 0-0 tie have since graduated. Most of the remaining veterans are now on Coach Tommy Thompson's injured list.

Lima Central defeated Bryan by 13-0 in its opener last week. Last year Lima Central held Marion Harding to a scoreless deadlock.

Barring an upset in either the Mt. Vernon game Friday night or the Lima Central game a week later, Harding will be keyed for the all-important Ashland tussle. A victory over the A's will all but clinch Harding's fourth straight title, despite the fact three league games still face the Presidents. After Sandusky on Oct. 23, Harding will face an almost powerless Bucyrus team on the Redmen's home field Oct. 30. Shelby on Nov. 6 and Galion on Nov. 13 should be pushovers.

Ashland has shown exceptional power in defeating Willard 12-0 and Norwalk 33-0 in its first two games of the season.

* * *

Already one of Harding's great 1941 records has fallen. For 10 games, dating back into the 1940 season, Harding's goal line had remained unsullied. In losing to Harding 18-6, Columbus West pushed across a line marker in the last minute of play, climaxing a 50 yard advance.

* * *

At least two of Harding's future opponents, especially the rampaging Ashland eleven, is capable of upsetting Harding. Not since midway in 1940 has Harding lost in football. Bucyrus' 16-6 conquest was the only loss dealt Coach Bill Williams in his last three years at the end of the Harding coaching staff.

* * *

Two other N. C. O. inaugurals, besides the Harding-Mt. Vernon clash, are on Friday night's bill-of-fare. The Ashland juggernaut is slated to travel to Bucyrus while Shelby's Whippets, under new coach Tommy Bender, formerly of Logan, go to Galion.

BIG TEN TEAMS SET FOR BUSY WEEK-END

Bierman To Direct Naval Team Against Gophers.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Oct. 1 — Western conference football will have lots to offer this week—also something hard to take.

The man in the middle will be Bernie Bierman, former Minnesota coach on leave of absence and now directing the powerful naval pre flight school eleven at Iowa City.

On Saturday his undefeated Seahawks will be out to smash Minnesota's 18 game victory string extending over three seasons—a string Bierman helped create in guiding the Gophers to five national titles in 10 years.

The game is one of a number of Saturday's top-notch Big Ten attractions which include the first conference clash of the season (Indiana at Ohio State), two inter-sectional contests (Texas at Northwestern; Purdue at Vanderbilt) and renewal of two intra-state rivalries (Michigan State at Michigan; Marquette at Wisconsin).

White Sox Seek Second Win Over Cubs Today

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Oct. 1 — Eddie Smith, the Chicago White Sox hard luck southpaw, will see how his fortune runs against National league opposition today as the Sox seek their second straight victory over their city rivals, the Cubs.

The Sox, who have not lost a city series since 1930, got away to a flying start in the 1942 opener yesterday at Wrigley field behind Ted Lyons' masterful three-hit 3-0 victory.

It was Lyons' sixth straight win over the Cubs in their fall meetings. Bill Lee, the Cub hurler, gave only six hits, but two of these came in the first inning with a base on balls to give the Sox a quick 2-0 lead.

Smith will be opposed today by Lon Warneke.

Western Reserve Coach Quits To Enter Navy

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Oct. 1 — Dick Luther is leaving his post as assistant football coach at Western Reserve university to enter the navy. Luther, reserve tackle for the past three years and winner of the Sam Willaman trophy as the outstanding senior on the team last season, will report to a naval training station next week.

WAR LAYS HAND ON WORLD SERIES GAME

Fans Feel Teams Performed for Men in Service.

By The Associated Press

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 1—Thirty-five thousand persons paid $150 000 to see a baseball game that wasn't being played for them at all.

The spectators at the World Series opener between the New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals yesterday seemed to sense they weren't the fans for whom the teams were performing.

The game had all the normal trappings and pageantry — the band, the buffoon and the bustle —but little of the usual tumult and shouting. The crowd was frequently silent and even its cheers lacked a full-throated, booming roar. There was almost a feeling of why all this fuss over a ball game when a war is being fought.

If nothing else, a little sign told why.

High on a radio booth under the eaves of the grandstand roof, it read simply. "BBC British Broadcasting Corporation."

The sign's message was plain, even without the sight of two army bombers winging low over the field. It said, in effect: This game is being played for American forces in the British Isles, for the navy on the seven seas, for the bulletin board "Gazette" of the helmet-clad marines on Guadalcanal island.

* * *

The never-say-die St. Louis baseball fans will be recalling the second game of the 1926 World Series as they file into Sportsman's Park today.

That was the year Herb Pennock pitched the Yankes to a 3 to 2 win in the first game with the Cardinals. The next day, with the aging Grover Cleveland Alexander hurling, and Right Fielder Billy Southworth, the present Card manager, smashing out a timely home run, St Louis evened the count and then went on to win the series.

* * *

A victory in today's game is a must in the books of the record-minded Card fans. These followers point to the series history book which shows that no team ever lost the first two games of a 7-game series and then came back to win the world's championship.

* * *

Much of the sorrow over the St. Louis defeat is evinced by the ever-present scalping gentry. Six dollar tickets which were peddled yesterday for a high as $20, are on the market today for $10 or less.

* * *

Today's best parlay: The name of the winning pitcher will begin with the letter "B" and the victory will be his 22nd of the year. Rookie John Beazley of the Cards and the Yanks' Ernie Bonham are scheduled to do the mound chores, and both have been credited with 21 wins.

About an hour before the first game started news reel cameramen asked the early customers to give out with cheers for a crowd picture. The fans obliged so willingly that people waiting to get into the park yelped frantically —believing the game actually had started.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1—On the way out to St. Louis some of the boys were discussing the Cardinals' speed and Joe McCarthy asked. "What are they, a bunch of Ty Cobbs on motorcycles?" . . . After the ninth inning yesterday, he probably figured the answer was "Yes." . . . At that, we can't think of a much easier job than trying to second-guess Joe on the world series . . . He doesn't leave anything for you to do . . . He picked Rufus the Red Ruffing to start yesterday instead of Bonham or some other young pitcher with a good record and for eight innings nobody could have done any better . . . If it hadn't been for the ninth, old Rufus might have done better than Herb Pennock and Waite Hoyt in the 1926 and 1928 world series openers against the Cards. They both tossed three-hitters.

One-Minute Sports Page—Washington fans are boosting Joe Judge for the job of managing the Senators, but how about Lefty Gomez? . . . At least, he can speak Spanish . . . ### Fans Miss Rally

Country Slaughter, Card right-fielder, let a couple across in the eighth when he dropped a smash into right-center by Ruffing. It was an extremely hard chance, incidentally, and might have been ruled a hit by a more lenient scorer. Lefty Max Lanier, who hurled the last inning for the Cards, let in the final two Yankee scores that were real beauties.

Many of the nearly 35,000 spectators had left the park when the Cards staged their amazing outburst in the ninth. They missed something that would have renewed their faith in their team Starting with Walker Cooper's single that Red Rolfe tagged at third base but couldn't handle cleanly, the Red Birds slugged six hits including a triple into the right-field corner by Shortstop 'Slats' Marion.

The bases still were loaded, the tying run on first, when Musial bounced to Hassett at first for the out that ended the game Spud Chandler, figured as the probable Yankee starting pitcher in the third game at Yankee stadium Saturday, finally had retired the side.

COINCIDENCE

By The Associated Press

NOTRE DAME, Ind —Notre Dame and Michigan will meet this year in football for the first time since 1909, when the Irish beat the Wolverines, 11 to 3. Notre Dame's captain this year is George Murphy of South Bend. The last South Bend boy to lead a Notre Dame team was Howard Edwards—in 1909 Star of that 1909 game was M. Harry Miller. Two of his sons, Creighton and Tom, are on the 1942 squad. Creighton is rated a good chance to win a starting berth.

DUCKS PLENTIFUL

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK—The latest report from Ducks Unlimited brings good news for the fall hunting season. Word from the breeding area is that the increase in ducks this season will equal the combined yearly increases between 1938 and 1941.

Greatest losses this year were laid to crows and other predators—the highest on record in that category. However, floods, droughts and fires were controlled to the extent that no losses from such causes were reported.

The Canadian National Railways are using but one locomotive to haul trains between Montreal and Halifax, a distance of 841 miles, the longest single locomotive run in eastern Canada.

RIO GRANDE OFFERS GRIDIRON BARGAIN

Hard-Luck Team Looking for Homecoming Rival.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O. Oct. 1—If you are a football coach, and are looking for a bargain, here 'tis!

Menzell Beattie, skipper of the Rio Grande college team in Gallia county, is looking for a homecoming game for Oct. 10 to be played at Rio Grande—one of the most scenic settings for a gridiron that Ohio boasts

Beattie said today that he needs a new guest team for the annual Rio Grande homecoming —the Tusculum club of Greenville, Tenn., originally booked for the fray, having given up football for the duration

The homecoming contest, if an opponent can be located, will be the only game of the season on the Rio Grande gridiron—half of which was carved out of a hillside

The Rio Grandes haven't won a ball game since 1937. During the 1939 and 1940 seasons they failed to score a point. Last season the Redskins scored three futile markers, but lost all their games This year they've lost two, allowing 72 points while scoring none

Despite the record, Coach Beattie is willing to take on any team for that Oct. 10 engagement Looks like a bargain, eh?

EARLY GAINS CUT BY LATE DAY SALES

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Oct. 1 — A grain market advance based on senate passage of anti-inflation legislation which would raise commodity loans granted by the government to producers was short-lived today and late profit taking reduced or erased the gains.

Wheat touched highest prices since early summer before the reaction occurred. Late selling was blamed partly on uncertainty as to whether higher loan rates for basic crops were mandatory and whether they will apply to 1942 production.

Now that the area is to be flooded by the giant Shasta dam, University of California excavators are busy salvaging arrowheads, bowls, knives and beads, for permanent preservation.

RAILS AND AIR STOCKS GAIN

Market Generally Revives Under Leadership of Favored Issues.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Oct. 1 — Stocks generally revived today under leadership of rails and airlines.

The list was a bit uneven at the opening but trends soon began to harden and, with a fair amount of activity, gains of fractions to more than a point were well distributed. Profit taking shaded best marks in many instances.

Senate passage of the wage-price bill failed to chill the market's inflation temperature to any great extent and the war news remained about a stand-off as a speculative and investment influence.

Among stocks Atlantic Coast Line and Southern Railway preferred touched new tops since 1937 and peak levels for the year or longer were reached by Southern Pacific, Union Pacific, Pan American Airways, Eastern Air Lines and U. S. Rubber. Doing rather well were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem and Chrysler.

Arthritis Treatment

Of treatments for arthritis there is no end. The poor patient goes through a succession of the same experiences. First he is buoyed up with hope, then he is bewildered with different advice as to a given remedy, then he tries it, after a trial he is disappointed, then he hears of something new, is blown up with hope and the dreary round begins anew.

It is well for every sufferer to remember the standards which the Committee of the American Rheumatism [illegible] in their primer on arthritis as quoted in [illegible] to the effect that [illegible] general principles of treatment should always [illegible] standard [illegible] of indispensable [illegible] If they are [illegible] do not have to [illegible] planned treatment [illegible] interfere with [illegible] ment.

The fundamentals are [illegible] no matter what type of arthritis is present:

(1) Rest—general of the whole body, and local of the affected joint or joints.

(2) Improvement of the general health of the whole person: treatment of anemia by iron, or transfusion; of malnutrition if it exists; of overweight if it exists; of vitamin deficiency if it exists; of focal infection if it exists; of digestive disturbance if it exists, etc.

This does not mean that any of these are the cause of the arthritis, but that since the general health of the arthritic is less robust than of the average person, more than average attention should be paid to its improvement. Thus under focal infection the Committee says: "The patient with rheumatoid arthritis has as much right to the removal or treatment of abscessed teeth, diseased tonsils, or sinus infection as any other person under the care of a physician. The treatment of such infections often helps the general health."

(3) Physical therapy — heat, diathermy, massage, muscle exercises, sunshine, climate.

(4) Relief of pain by salicylate medicines.

(5) Psychotherapy — encourage mental optimism. Most cases get well. Encourage the patient to have confidence in a definite routine of treatment and carry it out forcefully.

Certain other treatments the Committee considered as perhaps having some merit, but not yet definitely established. One of these is the gold treatment, which every arthritic must have heard of. Several preparations of gold have been used. Good results are claimed by different clinics in from 30 to 80 per cent of cases and the Committee admits that 10 per cent can be regarded as cures.

Certain treatments the Committee does not believe of any value. Large doses of Vitamin D are in this class, as are also preparations of the ductless glands, dietary fads, and the use of the sulfonamide drugs.

THE [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] the nurse called. We found her and Carolyn sitting [illegible] facing each other.

[illegible] all ready to go [illegible] said the nurse [illegible] the door knob turned to Carolyn.

Warns Carolyn

"Just one last warning, Carol," he said. "If you raise your voice again so that it can be heard beyond this room or outside the car after we get into it, I shall put a gag in your mouth, and you'll not find that pleasant."

Ronald's sister stiffened.

"Mr. Caron to you," she said insolently.

The nurse laughed with [illegible] amusement, and I knew that in Dicky's [illegible] she had Carol [illegible].

"When you grow up," she said, "I shall be glad to attach to your name any handle you fancy, but I haven't time to bother with refractory children."

As Miss Whitlock closed the door, I carefully refrained from even glancing at Carolyn. I had no desire to goad the girl further. I saw that Dicky, too, had his eyes averted from Ronald's sister, and for several seconds there was a heavy silence in the room. Then Carolyn spoke in words clinking like ice cubes.

Wants Information

"I suppose it's no use asking you again to which particular prison I'm going," she said.

"Not a bit," Dicky answered [illegible] "But you can be looking [illegible] a [illegible] one. And I may as well tell you now that you're going to be blindfolded, so you'll have no chance to [illegible]."

"How melodramatic you are!" Carolyn flared. "But you don't impress me in the least."

"That wasn't my aim at the moment," Dicky said calmly. "And by the way, Madge, we didn't tell Miss Whitlock about the blindfolding. She'll probably want to fix up something."

"I'll go and tell her immediately," I said, "unless you don't need me here. I imagine—"

"I always need the light of my life," Dicky returned. "But I'll spare you long enough to give your message to Miss Whitlock."

Still not looking at Carolyn, I hurried to the nurse.

Tries to Cajole Dicky

"Sorry to bother you," I said. "But I forgot to tell you that Father wants to have Carolyn effectively blindfolded as soon as we get in the car, and kept that way."

"I'll have everything ready," Miss Whitlock said competently, "and I think I can do a job that will suit your father."

"I am sure you can," I said and sped back to Carolyn and Dicky.

As I opened the door I heard Carolyn's voice pleading: "Oh, Uncle Dicky, you always understood me. Please listen to me now! I need you so!"

Then I saw the girl, her lithe body pressed against Dicky, her arms twined tightly around his neck, her lips close to his.

The Stars Say—

For Friday, Oct. 2

FAIR PROSPECTS for moderate success and progress are indicated by the predominant lunar transits. There may be surprising movement in stagnant situations or disappointing conditions, but this might be rendered futile by impulsive, uncontrolled, overstrenuous or belligerent acts or speech. Such demeanor might set aside support or approval of superiors or public.

Those whose birthday it is may be surprised at the sudden and unlooked-for opportunity to achieve a fair success in desired objectives. But this favorable situation might be nullified by flying into tempestuous or impulsive acts or words of a belligerent and violent nature. Superiors, employers, public or community cooperation might be withheld.

A child born on this day should have originality and practical constructive ability, which would gain moderate success.
